

County Division Will Mean $5.43 Tax Rate, Expert Survey Shows

CHARTER TO MAKE HIGHER LEVY CERTAIN

Figures Compiled After Careful Study of Provisions of the New Charter Disclose Certainty of Increased Levy

Opponents of Separation Plan Offer to Conduct Joint Investigation With Advocates Scheme to Settle Question

Oakland, functioning as a city and county, as proposed under the charter to be voted upon February 7, will have a tax rate of $5.43 on $100 instead of the present $4.91 rate.

This figure, reached after several months of expert investigation by the Alameda County Anti-Division League, is set forth in detail in a statement issued today by the Anti-Division League through its president, W. H. Gibson.

The statement carries with it the assertion that the public is entitled to the truth as to the cost of government under the proposed charter and that the proposed charter and its opponents are invited to conduct a joint investigation with advocates of the scheme to settle the question.

The Anti-Division League submits its report and makes to the Charter League the following proposal:

That the Charter League appoint an expert to go over the figures with an expert appointed by the Anti-Division League and that, in case of no agreement a third expert be appointed by both organizations to go over the figures with the two experts and that the Charter League's detailed figures so that there may be complete agreement upon the facts.

Summarized, the statement of the Anti-Division League shows these points among the most significant:

So-called consolidation of city and county governments of Oakland is not consolidation at all. The city will assume many (nearly all) county functions, thus adding to the expense of conducting the city.

ALL CITY FUNCTIONS MUST BE RETAINED.

It is obvious that all necessary city functions, including police and fire, street cleaning, parks, playgrounds and other services as established by law and custom must be retained.

To this what is added under the division scheme?

All legal county offices and services must be established (added) and maintained, together with such other additional requirements as the new charter provides.

The charter is framed for eleven communities to be saddled on Oakland.

The city of Oakland, as a city and county, would stand the entire expense of:

County clerk, district attorney, sheriff, recorder, coroner, superior court, justice courts, probation officer, jail, detention home, maintenance of delinquent minors, registration, weights and measures, hospitals, maintenance of county buildings and hospitals, state fair and advertising.

SAVING IS OFFSET BY ADDITIONAL EXPENSE.

Full allowance is made by the Anti-Division League for a saving which, it is conceded will be made in the offices of assessor, auditor and tax collector, a saving which is more than offset by the burden of additional expense.

How does the City of Oakland now fare in payment of money expended and benefits received?

The figures, available to all, show that it benefits by $450,000. The taxpayers of the City of Oakland, however, receive $450,000 more than they pay. Sixty-three per cent of the assessed valuation of Alameda county is within the limits of the proposed City and County of Oakland; 64 per cent of the population of the county is within those limits.

On behalf of orphans and half-orphans, Oakland receives $57,400 more in benefits than it contributes in taxes.

USE OF INFIRMARY BENEFIT TO OAKLAND.

Through the use of the Infirmary and Tubercular sanitarium it receives $45,000 more than it pays. In the use of the Receiving Hospital, care and maintenance of feeble-minded, county jail, Detention Home, Associated Charities, $14,350 more than it pays.

In these cases a check was made on the number of inmates in each institution and their place of residence.

For assisting indigents in their homes it receives $22,300 more than it pays in taxes.

Oakland's school district it receives in money actually apportioned by the county $311,000 more than it pays in taxes for the schools. (Because of school apportionment uncertainties, and because this money would have been raised otherwise if not given this sum is not considered in the figuring of the figures.)

On the other hand, the city of Oakland, functioning as a city and county, as proposed under the charter to be voted upon February 7, will have a tax rate of $5.43 on $100 instead of the present $4.91 rate.

This figure, reached after several months of expert investigation by the Alameda County Anti-Division League, is set forth in detail in a statement issued today by the Anti-Division League through its president, W. H. Gibson.

OAKLANDERS RETURN FROM AFRICA TOUR

H. A. Snow Arrives With His Party From Tropics, Bringing Rare Trophies of Jungle for Place in Local Museum

Big Game Hunter, Wife, Son and Daughter Bronzed by Southern Seas, End 80,000 Mile Journey on Land, Sea

Rhinos are rejoicing and hippos are happy in Africa today for H. A. Snow of Oakland who has been their nemesis for the past two years is home again.

Broad-shouldered, muscular and tanned by the sun of the tropics, Snow looks the part of a worthy antagonist of the lion, elephant and other savage denizens of the jungle he has slain.

"There is an odd contrast between this and the wild, sun-baked borderland of Abyssinia," said Snow today as the Sunset Limited neared the bay where he landed at San Francisco. "There is a marked shortage of elephants and hippos in this part of the world which I never noticed before. It certainly is great to be back in California again."

Snow and his party arrived at one o'clock in San Francisco. After luncheon they crossed to this side of the bay, and were received by a local delegation at that hour at Fourteenth and Franklin street depot. A number of affairs for the hunter are being planned by local organizations. Dr. William S. Porter, chairman of the museum committee of the Oakland library board, headed the welcoming delegation.

The two lion cubs which Snow brought back with him from Africa and which aroused the greatest interest in New York, were not with him on his arrival at San Francisco. These had been rerouted at San Jose by way of Newark. Wednesday a welcoming luncheon will be given to the party at the hotel Oakland by the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations.

GIL WINS TITLE OF YOUNGEST EXPLORER.

Snow was accompanied by his wife, his son Sidney and his 7-year-old daughter Norma. She has the distinction of being the youngest of the world's youngest explorers.

Nydney Snow, an older daughter, who remained in Oakland when her parents went to Africa, went to San Jose today to meet them.

In telling of his thrilling adventures today Snow recounted how he and his son had been charged by a herd of 400 wild elephants.

"It happened while we were tracking a rhinoceros on the Abyssinian border," said Snow. "We had with us on this trip a 'safari' or hunting party which included 200 'native' boys. There were several 'borans,' the type of native which is particularly dangerous. We also had many camels and donkeys on this trip. We had to have special permission from the British government to go into this wild region. We also used a small motor car on this trip."

HERD OF ELEPHANTS CONFRONTS HIM.

"When we neared the Lorain swamp, where Simpson, another explorer, lost all of his camels, 'dik-dik,' or small deer, ran out from the undergrowth to the left of us. I descended from the automobile and fired a couple of shots at the deer. Just then I heard an awful roar. I yelled 'Look out,' thinking it was a fight between a lion and an elephant. I came out into the clearing and found myself confronted by a herd of about 400 wild elephants."

"They were waving their trunks, trumpeting, and pawing the ground savagely. I yelled 'tambo,' the native word for elephant. Next was a big roar about 12 feet high, placed my wife and baby on top of the roof and prepared to meet the charge of the savage beasts."

KILLS ELEPHANTS.

"Just then the elephants charged us. We retreated for some distance and then I sent a white boy on a detour of the herd. He climbed a tree some distance behind them and commenced shouting into the herd. Sixty elephants charged directly toward me. I emptied my rifle, dropping three. I fell over backwards into the soft bed of a creek just back of me. OVER PROSISTE MAN.

"The elephants continued their charge, leaping over the ditch. For some seconds I could see nothing but flying elephant legs over my head. I climbed out of the ditch in time to charge directly toward my son, Sidney, who continued grinding at his camera. I yelled at him to save himself, but the rumble of the charge drowned my voice."

"I fired a shot into the air, and then I saw the elephants turning, throwing up the sand in front of them to divert them from their course. I succeeded in doing this when they were within a few yards of Sidney and I came back to him."

"On another occasion a huge bull elephant charged the camera and we secured a close-up of him within sixteen yards of the camera. He measured ten feet six inches at the shoulder, his tusks were seven feet long and his trunk was eleven feet in length. This means that he could pluck a man out of a tree twenty-two feet in the air."

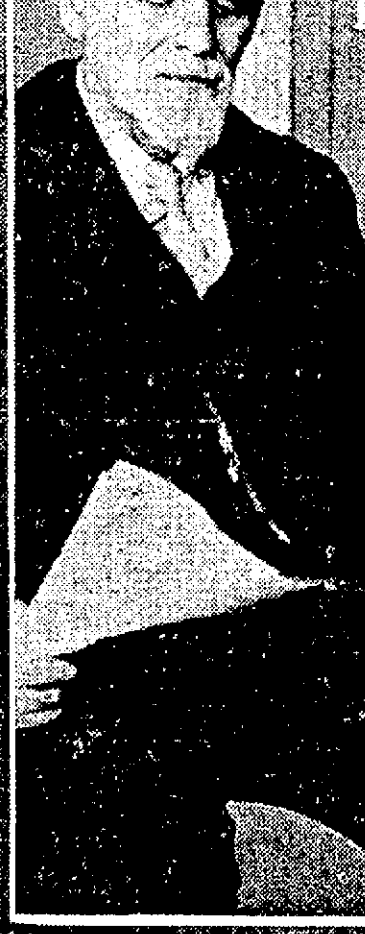

"It cost me 5500 rupees to transport this one elephant back to Mombasa."

PICTURES MADE OF WILD PERFORMERS.

"I got some wonderful pictures of four big bull elephants which charged us repeatedly. We photographed them tearing down immense

At First Sight

ELI DAVY at 84 conducted a whirlwind courtship and won the hand of MRS. FRANCES V. DAVY, 81. They were married last night, believe in love at first sight and expect to live indefinitely.

HAPPY COUPLE, 81 AND 84, MARRY

Grand Army Romance Leads Mrs. Frances Veeder and Eli Davy to Altar.

Is love sadness? Elinor Glyn, novelist, says "yes." Mrs. Eli C. Davy, 81 years of age, and a bride of one day, says "decidedly not."

"Love is like a spring song. It is melody in the trees. It is life itself," said Mrs. Davy. "If you don't believe me, ask Eli."

And Eli, 84 years of age, gave smiling assent.

These two old people were married last night at a quiet ceremony in the First Baptist church with Rev. John Snape, the pastor, officiating. The marriage was the culmination of a romance which has its inception less than a year ago.

ROMANCE BEGINS AT GRAND ARMY SOCIETY.

"We met at one of the Grand Army societies," said Davy. "I was in the First Pennsylvania Cavalry during the war under Colonel Taylor and General McCull. Mrs. Davy is a member of the Relief Corps. She was homesome, and so was I. We tried to console each other. I guess it was another case of love at first sight."

Mrs. Davy, formerly Mrs. Frances L. Veeder, became a widow a year ago in March. She had been married to Veeder for sixty years and had raised the child of her daughter, the mother having died when the baby was three years old. Last night this granddaughter, Mrs. Flora Garden, acted as bridesmaid. Davy's grandson, Howard C. Crum of Alameda, attended his grandfather.

LIVES SIXTY YEARS WITH ONE HUSBAND.

"I lived with one husband for sixty years," said Mrs. Davy at her home, 874 Twenty-first street, this morning. "I guess Eli and I can get along for a few years together."

Davy, however, does not stop at a few years. A man is as old as he feels, he declares, and doesn't die until he thinks he is ready to die. "I don't see any reason why we should die at all," said Davy. "We are supremely happy, and we are both in splendid health. Why should we die?"

Mrs. Veeder was the widow of one of the first photographers in New York. She is a native of that State, and came to California thirty-six years ago. Davy is a native of Pennsylvania, and migrated to California five years ago. He was a lumber dealer, but retired before coming to California. He had been residing with his daughter at 2300 Central avenue, Alameda.

FORD OFFERS TO PURCHASE FRENCH NAVY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French government cabled

MORATORIUM AGREED UPON FOR GERMANY

CANNES, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Invitations to

Henry Ford asking if he would consider the purchase of obsolete battle-ships.

Immediately Ford answered. Unless he could buy the entire French navy, he said, he would not be interested in "job lots."

No reply to his cable has been received, Ford said.

The proposal and his answer were made public by the manufacturer today.

Ford received the cablegram some days ago from Paris asking if he would buy for scrapping purposes a number of presumably obsolete French cruisers and battleships.

WANTS TO SCRAP ALL OF WORLD'S NAVIES.

"I cabled back immediately," said Ford, "stating that the only proposition of that kind I cared to consider from France would be one for the purchase and junking of the entire French navy."

"I am not interested in parts of navies. I want to scrap them all. 'France would make money and be in a better position in the world if she sold me her entire fleet and let me junk it tomorrow.'"

"I never received any reply to my proposition from the French."

"But, France and every other nation could well afford to scrap their big battleships and cruisers. When the business of taking care of the fighting ships of all the navies of the world is done, there is one thing, however, that I would like to see well understood. I do not believe in universal disarmament until proper provision is made to give employment to the men and women now working in the shipyards, the munitions factories and the arsenals. The business of taking care of the employees of the navy yards who will be thrown out of work because of the naval reduction plans of the arms conference should be one of the first things taken up."

"The Mississippi river is today the greatest object of wanton waste in the world. It could be made the world's most valuable possession. Twenty power dams could be constructed on the Mississippi river. Such a power development would make cities like St. Louis, St. Paul and Minneapolis, New Orleans, Memphis and Davenport among the most flourishing in the world."

"Raising the level of the river would insure a deep-water channel for steamships the entire navigable length of the stream. It would permit Davenport to ship manufactured products to Europe."

"The government could issue currency against the project, the rentals would retire the currency in twenty years and the project would be paid for without one cent of cost to the people."

DISCUSS PLAN TO DEVELOP MISSISSIPPI.

Turning to his dream of developing vast quantities of waterpower for industrial purposes in the south and middle-west, he said:

Here's Pact Text Drawn By Briand And Lloyd George

PARIS, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The text of the proposed Anglo-French treaty, brought to Paris by Briand from Cannes, was made public today. The preamble recites Germany's two invasions of France, the present devastation and the reasons for protecting France in the interests of European world peace. The text reads:

His Britannic Majesty and the President of the French Republic have agreed to the following provisions:

- 1.—In case of a direct and unprovoked aggression against the territory of France by Germany, Great Britain will place herself immediately at the side of France with her naval, military and aerial forces.
- 2.—The high contracting parties affirm anew their common interest in Articles 42, 43 and 44 of the Treaty of Versailles, and will act together should there be menace of a violation of any of the aforesaid articles or if doubt arise as to their interpretation.
- 3.—The high contracting parties further bind themselves to act together in case of military, naval or aerial measures incompatible with the Treaty of Versailles, taken by Germany.
- 4.—The present treaty does not impose any obligations upon any of the possessions of the British empire unless and until it has been approved by the interested dominion.
- 5.—The treaty shall remain in force during a period of ten years and will be renewable at the end of that period by common agreement.

FRANCE'S PARLEY LEADER RETAINED

Millerand and Briand Cable to Sarraut to Continue in Negotiations.

By CARL D. GROAT.

United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—A denial today indicated that the policies of France at the arms conference will be continued, despite the resignation of the French cabinet, was seen here today when the French delegation officially announced that President Millerand and Ex-Premier Briand of France had asked M. Sarraut to remain here as the chief representative of his country.

The big five began today its task of making the naval disarmament treaty flawless. Knowing that this vital document will undergo the keen scrutiny of legislators before its ratification, and the sharp interpretation of navy men of five nations later, the big five wanted its verbiage clear and unequivocal.

While the big five counseled together, the Chinese and Japanese negotiators were engaged in discussing the opening of the Tsing Tao port to foreign nations. The Japanese indicated their agreement to having a "self-opening" port, that is, a port which the Chinese themselves keep open. But they wanted more details as to control methods before indicating their final acceptance.

TOKYO, Jan. 13.—Japan has not yielded in any way nor has it made any concessions on the Shantung concessions, according to an official statement issued today by the foreign office.

The statement declared that Japan's previous position remains unchanged.

AGREEMENT REACHED ON SHANTUNG PORT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The port of Tientsin and the entire Kiaochow leased territory would be opened by China to the commerce of all nations on equal terms, under an agreement reached by the Chinese and the Japanese arms delegations today in continuing their conversations over the Shantung controversy.

PLANS READY FOR FRANCE'S NEW CABINET

Poincare Will Announce His Ministry Tomorrow; Will Take Premiership, Foreign Office Duties On Himself

Reorganized Government to Follow the Policy of Sternness With Germany; Ally Parley Will Be Resumed

By ASSOCIATED PRESS.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—(Poincare officially announced today that he had accepted the task of forming a cabinet to succeed the Briand ministry and would present the list of his nominees tomorrow.

Millerand and Poincare today decided that if Poincare found a ministry, the conference broken off at Cannes would be resumed by the new premier after an understanding had been reached between the heads of the allied powers.

By WILLIAM COOK.

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—Raymond Poincare, former president of France, who was designated by President Millerand to form a new cabinet to succeed the resigned Briand ministry, was engaged today in an effort to create a strong nationalist government which will exercise a policy of the utmost sternness toward Germany.

Poincare was engaged in conference with political colleagues throughout the morning. He went to the Elysee palace at noon to report to President Millerand.

Poincare himself proposes to take over the two posts of premier and foreign minister.

POINCARÉ UNYIELDING TOWARD GERMANY.

Poincare has been one of the most persistent leaders of the French political faction demanding: Strict execution of every clause of the Versailles treaty and subsidiary documents by Germany. Further military occupation of Germany if the Berlin government defaults in its indemnity obligations.

A receivership for Germany with an allied control commission if Germany fails to make the indemnity payments due this month and next.

A close alliance between France and Poland.

Refusal by France to recognize the Moscow soviet government unless it promises to pay all Russia's foreign debts and makes other concessions.

"ALLIANCE A FARCE WITHOUT FURTHER PENALTIES."

Poincare's attitude on the proposed Anglo-French treaty of alliance was made known during discussion at Cannes when Briand suddenly deserted the supreme council meeting to come to Paris, was outlined as follows in the Revue des Deux Mondes just prior to the collapse of the Briand government.

Poincare's positive official alliance between Britain and France would be peculiar to France and would give us the security which we lack. It would enable us to reduce our military budget and concentrate upon establishing peace throughout the world. Put if England does not formally undertake an obligation to force strict application of the treaty of Versailles and if Germany is to be sanctioned (penalties) toward Germany the alliance would be a farce."

The press and political circles generally expressed regret over the resignation of Briand, but they welcomed with approval the selection of Poincare as Briand's successor.

PRACTICALLY all the newspapers pointed out that Briand left behind him the policy of a close union with Great Britain as one means to assist reestablishment of world peace. They expressed the hope that Poincare would continue this policy.

It is felt in many quarters that the crisis reached its climax at the most inopportune time in view of the fact that Germany has announced she cannot pay the $120,000,000 indemnity installment due Sunday. Advises from Cannes said that the council meeting had been broken off and no arrangements made for its renewal.

REACTION IN FAVOR OF BRIAND IN PARIS.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The manner of M. Briand's dramatic exit, while appearing on the verge of an overwhelming vote of confidence in the Chamber of Deputies, has caused a reaction in his favor, and besides, former President Poincaré has a strong opposition in Parliament. Neither is the former president too popular with a large section of the general public. Added to this, many members of Parliament hold that President Millerand, according to constitutional practice, should invite Briand to resume power with another combination of ministers, inasmuch as he was not beaten by a vote in Parliament. Briand, however, stated to newspapermen last night that his resignation was "absolutely final."

GIRL JAILED AS BRINGING CHINESE ACROSS BORDER

San Diego Miss and Man Are Nabbed in Auto Chase As Smugglers.

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 12.—"Babe" Ledoux, 21, who gave her home as San Diego, is in the county jail there in connection with activities of an alleged band of smugglers of Chinese, following the pursuit and capture of the machine in which she was riding through Bakersfield last night. A second automobile, said to be carrying five Chinese, escaped after having been pursued north on the state highway at more than 60 miles an hour.

With the girl in the machine captured was Frank Van Bezel, 23, San Diego, and one Chinese, according to the police.

Advises were received by the sheriff from San Diego that two cars believed to be carrying contraband Chinese were traveling in this direction and roads entering Bakersfield from the south were guarded. The car carrying the girl was the first to arrive and it was followed by Motor Officer Hugh S. Knox into town. The machine halted in the downtown district and Knox approached and discovered the Chinese, he stated. The second party became alarmed and the driver dashed on through town with Knox in pursuit.

Miss Ledoux said she knew nothing of a smuggling scheme. She said she is a telephone operator and that her home is at 2927 Imperial avenue, San Diego. Van Bezel gave his address in that city as the Onyx hotel.

Miss Ledoux and Van Bezel are charged with violation of the immigration laws.

"In one charge, when we descended the camera, the elephants charged right through the camera, smashing it to splinters. Fortunately the film remained intact."

"I have been shipping specimens to Oakland from time to time. My last collection, including many rare birds, I shipped by way of the Panama canal when I reached New York. This shipment weighed twelve tons.

SMALLER SPECIMENS OF AFRICAN LIFE.

"My collection does not consist merely of big game but of smaller specimens of African life as well. There is a collection of 20,000 butterflies; 5000 bird eggs; 500 full-mounted birds and 10,000 beetles, bugs and other insects. I also collected 45 habitat groups from five to twenty-five animals. I brought home 75 zebra skins, thinking my friends might want them for rugs.

"We took 4000 still photographs, about 150,000 feet of animal, tribal and other films, and 30,000 miles of travelogue.

"We left Oakland December 10, 1919. My wife and little daughter were not with me at that time. They followed six months later and met me in Zululand. On my way to Africa I stopped off at the Hawaiian Islands, the South Sea Islands and Australia.

"I landed later at Durban, South Africa, and left on a forty-ton launch to cruise south of the Cape of Good Hope. I stopped at Dyer's Island, Penguin Island, Cormorant Island and Vasser Island. I found a full seal island with about 50,000 fur seals on it. During this trip I took one photograph of some three million penguins.

"I was shipwrecked on the shores of Penguin Island and was taken to South Africa in a whaling vessel. From there I went to Mafeking and thence to Bechuanaland Protectorate. Along the Molopo river I shot a rare gemsbok and a greater kudu."

WILL TAKE LONG REST IN OAKLAND.

While in New York Snow visited the grave of that great African hunter, Roosevelt.

Roosevelt was known as "Bwana (umbo)" (big chief). Snow was known to the natives as "bona macula" or "big boss."

Mrs. Snow said today that the worst creature in Africa as far as she was concerned was the small tick that pestered everybody while they were camping.

Concerning the natives, Mrs. Snow said that the Snow expedition never used the "white man privilege" of beating the natives. She said that the natives were a very gentle kindly type for the most part.

No definite plans have yet been made by the Snows as to their future life. According to Snow they are preparing to take a long rest at their home in this city and let the future take care of itself.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. LONDON, Jan. 12.—Despite official assertions that the Mohlah rebellion has been put down in the Malabar district of India, word was received today from Allahabad that a battle had been fought near Totakad between the Indians and British troops with heavy casualties.

A force of 500 rebels under Komnars Thangal, after killing two Hindu women and razing the countryside, has taken refuge in entrenched positions in the Edmorakem hill country. British soldiers are surrounding the rebels and a battle is expected.

The rebel chiefs, Chembraseri Thangal and Seethkya Thangal, and four followers have been executed by the British at Malpuram, said a despatch from Calcut.

Mine Cavein Kills Four, Tombs Score

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 12.—Four men are known to have been killed and several others are believed to be dead, and an unknown number of mine workers are entombed as the result of a cave-in in the national mine of the Glen Alden Coal Company, south of here. Miners who escaped said the number of men believed to be behind the barrier is about twenty. There was no confirmation of a report that nearly fifty men were caught. When a settling of the ground in the area above the mine occurred pupils of a large school and employees of the silk mill were dismissed for the day.

Burch, charged with the murder of Dr. John Kennedy. The case will go to the jury either late today or tomorrow morning.

County Division to Boost Tax Rate, Figures Prove

tax rate. It represents, however, the loss of that sum to the city and county of Oakland.)

It is conceded that automobile license money is used to build and maintain the highways leading into Oakland. Under the charter plan this money will be used within the city of Oakland and as far as dollars and cents are concerned the city of Oakland will receive the benefit. An allowance is made for this saving in the figures upon which the $5.43 tax rate is reached. It should be borne in mind, however, that this money, heretofore, has been spent largely outside of Oakland for the highways leading into this community. Under the charter plan the outside country would pay the whole burden with the result that roads used largely by Oakland automobilists, could not be maintained as at present.

The present rate, city and county added, is $4.91.

On the basis of the same assessed valuation, under the new charter, for the support of county offices, and county functions, for city expenses for school district expense, with the same provision for improvements for new city and county (and they grow, use more), the rate would be $5.43.

WILL SHOW COSTS.

Does this include all costs? It does not include the boards and commissions allowed in the charter, water supply problem, sewerage franchise expense, or anything affecting the metropolitan area outside of Oakland City as it now stands.

It does not include any of the hundreds of employees which are made possible by the charter. Perusal of that document will convince any reader of the fact that it is wide open for additional expense. None of this is reckoned, however, in this statement.

The figures for the expenses of the city manager's office are given in the Anti-Division League statement as $22,500, a low figure. It is the one at which the Taxpayers' Association estimates the cost, and is based on a minimum salary for the manager of $12,000. It is generally believed that this will be doubled.

FIGURES SUMMARIZED TO PROVE STATEMENT.

How may these figures be summarized? Required taxes for Oakland City (including school dist.) $3.51
Oakland School Dist. bonds (not in above) 18
Oakland city improvements based on 1921... 27
Oakland's proportion of county expense... 67
County Improvements in Oakland, current budget... 50

Total Tax rate... $5.43
(There is no consideration here of the expenses of Piedmont and Emeryville.)

How is this divided, Oakland City and Oakland County?

Expenses of Oakland now existing and necessary, and not duplicated by county or displaced:
From Auditor's report... $3,930,472
Oakland school district, 1921-1922... 3,629,011

Total required... $7,559,483
LESS REVENUES... $1,455,538
City of Oakland, budget estimate... $593,091

State aid to schools... $32,308
Federal aid, same... 23,249
TO BE RAISED BY TAXES... $6,703,895

The rate required per $100 assessed valuation... $3.81
School Dist. Bonds (not included above)... 18
Improvements based on $410,930 of last year... 27

Total rate for city or borough purposes... $4.26
To this would be added Oakland's proportion of county expense with revenues deducted.

The county offices, prorated on population basis is 64 per cent of total from county budget, this would be... $1,041,197

Costs of county offices, on assessed valuation basis... 112,749
Costs of county charter and other functions... 330,400
Cost of acquiring county buildings... 125,871

Total costs... $1,609,917
Less revenues in-clude fees apportioned on population basis... $381,008
Other revenues... $0,817

To be raised by Taxes... $1,178,932
Assessed valuation (Oakland, Piedmont and Emeryville) is $173,700,000.

Rate required per $100 assessed valuation... $5.97
Improvements on county budget... 50

Total rate... $1.17
Total city rate... 4.26

Combined rate... $5.43
The report takes up each item in detail, shows the schedules and official records from which the figures were taken and makes all allowances in those instances where estimates must be made. The League invites an investigation of the figures by an expert from the Charter League, in conjunction with an expert from the Anti-Division League.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats any other oil all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of Mulsified is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO HEAD MENACE TO CIVIL SERVICE

Meeting January 21 to Be Told of Danger to System New Charter Contains.

All employees of the city government of Oakland have been invited to attend a meeting at Chabot hall, Saturday evening, January 21, for the purpose of hearing the civil service provisions of the proposed charter explained.

The meeting has been arranged by the Citizens' Advisory Committee for the Protection of Civil Service. The speakers will be men and women who have made a thorough study of the new charter and who will point out how civil service is threatened and how its members will be robbed of their right of appeal from removal.

"A charter is a strictly legal document," said Judge W. H. Donahue, "and the greater part of it is couched in language that the ordinary layman cannot fully understand. Hidden away in twenty different sections are references to civil service that need explanation. In the summary provided by the franchisees there is not a word of the vital changes that are made in civil service. The only reference is in these words: 'The charter contains provisions.' This is not explanatory. It is merely the franchisees' opinion of their own work. The public has a right to get an unbiased knowledge of the entire charter and this can only be done through a careful presentation of the facts by those who know them."

Necklace Valued At $1,500,000 Involved in Suit

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A dispute involving more than a third of a million dollars over a pearl necklace found its way into the supreme court today in a suit alleging it was sold for $1,500,000 instead of the $225,000 claimed by the defendant, Cartier, Inc., New York and Paris jewelers, are the defendants, and V. and I. Bengaliat, European jewelers, are the plaintiffs in the suit, which is for $375,000 and interest.

According to the Bengaliats, Cartier, Inc., purchased the necklace—five rows, consisting of 329 pearls, with two diamond clasps—in May, 1920. The purchase price, both sides agree, was to be $500,000, plus one-half of the amount over and above this for which Cartier, Inc., might dispose of the necklace.

In November of the same year, the complaint recites, the Cartier firm reported the sale of the pearls for $825,000. At a later date, the Bengaliat firm now charges, it was learned that the necklace was sold for $1,500,000.

COUNTRY CLUB OF CENTERVILLE TO OPPOSE DIVISION

Newark Mass Meeting Also Results in Action Against Separation.

CENTERVILLE, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Del Bos Eaton, secretary of the Country Club, an organization composed of the representative women of Washington township, today announced the names of the members of the committee of the club which will direct the campaign of the women of the township to defeat the proposed county division movement at the election, February 7.

Authorization for the appointment of the committee was given by Mrs. George Howitz of Alameda, president of the club, at the meeting Tuesday when the women endorsed the anti-county division resolution as passed at the Federated Chamber of Commerce of Washington and Eden townships meeting.

The committee members are Mrs. J. C. Shum of Niles, Mrs. George Wright and Mrs. S. Bantling of Centerville, Mrs. Henry May of Detroit, Mrs. John Serber of Alameda, Mrs. Anderson of Irvington, Miss Mary Brown of Newark and Mrs. A. Bantling of Mission San Jose.

The women have pledged themselves to a 100 per cent vote against division of Alameda county.

NEWARK, Jan. 12.—Unanimous opposition to the movement to divide Alameda county and endorsement of resolutions condemning the division plans resulted from the meeting of the Newark Chamber of Commerce when the matter was discussed by a score of local citizens.

The members of the organization will conduct a campaign here against the division proposition, which they believe will result in a unanimous rejection of the proposition at the election February 7.

Among those who spoke against county division were Louis Ruschlin, M. D. Silva and S. S. Buchanan, orators; Lloyd Wales and Mrs. C. Hales.

B. A. DEGREE FOR TEACHERS URGED

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—A plan presented by Dr. C. H. Marvin, assistant director of the Southern Branch of the University of California, and proposing four-year courses in state teachers' colleges leading to a bachelor of arts degree, was taken under advisement here by the State Board of Education. It was stated that while all of the members had given tentative approval of the plan, definite action would not be taken until the April meeting.

CHICAGO OPERA DEFICIT TO SET WORLD'S RECORD

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—The high cost of producing grand opera will result in a deficit of more than $800,000 in the financial affairs of the Chicago Grand Opera company this season. It is estimated by members of the newly formed association which will handle the company's business next season.

This deficit, said to be the largest ever contracted by any opera company in a single season, will be met by Harold McCormick and Edith Rockefeller McCormick, recently divorced from him. The McCormicks agreed five years ago to cover the annual deficit until May, 1922.

A program of vigorous retrenchment is planned for next year. Mary Garden, director this year, has been given a contract for 1922-23, but the business affairs will be under new management.

The deficit this season will be made up of a loss estimated at $800,000 on the Chicago season, which ends next week, and $200,000 estimated loss on the New York trip which follows. The trip to the Pacific coast, where all the performances are underwritten, is expected to break even.

ENGLISH WOMEN DEFEND MODERN

LONDON, Jan. 14.—How strong is the modern woman idea in England? Judging by the frequent attacks published in the British press by elderly social workers, the English girl is completely weaned away from the conventions of the nineteenth century.

The latest attack comes from Mrs. Kendall, who in a speech at Three Arts club, told her audience that the modern descendants of Eve are too fond of money and have too much desire to get at the height of their ambitions at twenty-five, whereas it used to be forty or thereabouts. They also are anxious to get the best of clothes at an early age, she added, and not too much of them.

An enterprising London newspaper published a symposium of the views of leading actresses on Mrs. Kendall's accusations. The stage women were unanimous in scoffing at her reproaches.

Is ambition a crime? they asked. And their own answer to the rhetorical question was a decided "No."

Jewish Relief Folk

To Give Ball Sunday

The Jewish Consumptives' Relief Association of Oakland will give a masked ball next Sunday evening at the Alhambra Theatre, Thirteenth and Harrison streets. Mrs. B. Grubin is president of the association.

RANCHER, 81, DIES.
WHEATLAND, Jan. 13.—George Washington Hollingshead, George rancher of Yuba county, died at his home here at the age of 81 years.

Auto Show, Fairyland of Motordom, Ready Monday

When the thousands of Eastbay motorists enter the portals of the big Auditorium on next Monday evening they will be greeted by a display of motor cars and accessory exhibits said to be the most complete ever shown in the history of the Oakland Automobile Show. No department in the automotive world will go without representation, practically every dealer on this side of the bay being represented by the latest models of the motor cars they handle.

Under the direction of Bob Martland, manager of the big show, the task of installing exhibits and putting the finishing touches onto the decorative scheme is reaching its final stages and visitors to the affair on Monday evening will be offered entrance to a veritable fairyland of color, light and music. Mrs. Ellza Loeber, who has cared for the decorating of the big auditorium, has announced her complete satisfaction of the scheme as it now stands.

All the passenger automobiles, with a few exceptions, will be displayed in the main arena of the big building. Several of the larger dealers have bought additional space in the corridors in order to make a larger display of their wares. The north corridor will be used for cars and accessories and there will be a very comprehensive display of these. Bob Martland's record for starting Oakland shows on time will stand him in good stead this year and he promises that there will be no hitch in the final moments preceding the opening of the auditorium. Electricians at work in hanging the strings of bulbs which will illuminate the exhibits are entering the final stages of their work so that on Monday evening the big building will be transformed into a bower of beauty.

GALE WRECKED PEACE STATUE.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Jan. 13.—The Angel of Peace statue, which had stood on the Ocean Grove beach front for forty years, is in ruins as the result of a five-minute raking this city received from Wednesday's gale. The statue was toppled from its base by a 72-mile gust and shattered.

BOY-ED CLAIMS GERMAN SHIP DISCRIMINATION

By JOHN GRADUENZ.

United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—Capt. Boy-Ed, former German naval attaché at Washington, complains bitterly in the shipping trade papers of the manner in which German ships are being treated in American ports where they are charged a fifty cents allied tonnage tax, in addition to a fifty cents charge and the ordinary six cents per net ton. Boy-Ed says that according to American laws this extra tax can only be raised if other nations are exercising the same rights to America's disadvantage, therefore this extra taxation bears the character of a repressive measure. He points out American ships have always been treated with extreme courtesy in this country and no differential taxes have been charged. The German courts granted the Shipping Board's vessels extra-territoriality within German harbors, which is an unusual privilege.

TIPS ARE TAXED.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—London hairdressers have received an official request to include the amount of their tips in their income tax returns. This follows a similar demand upon tailors.

The first international exhibition of industry took place in London, in 1851.

Berlin To Continue To Own Railroads

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—Germany probably will continue to own and operate her railways, posts, telegraphs and waterways, despite efforts by certain industrialists and political leaders to induce the government to sell these public utilities to private interests.

Government ownership of railways appears to have become a stable policy following this campaign and it is staunchly supported by Socialists, Democrats, Liberals and Labor elements.

The campaign against government ownership followed the piling up of enormous deficits by all the railways and the pressure of entente creditors for payment of Germany's war indemnities. It was argued that the roads could be made to pay a profit under private ownership.

Officers Re-elected By Fruit Exchange

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—George H. Cutter of Sacramento has been re-elected president of the California Fruit Exchange, and F. B. Mills of Lodi re-elected secretary. James L. Brannan of Loomis was chosen as vice-president to succeed E. A. Gammon of Galt. J. L. Nagle will remain business manager.

FORMER EXPRESS CHIEF DIES.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 13.—F. C. Gensch, 70 years old, former general superintendent of the Union Pacific Express company, with headquarters at St. Louis, Mo., died here last night. He was active in the express business for 42 years, retiring in 1912. In the early days he directed the pony express service from Ogden to the Pacific Northwest.

Plays to Be Given At Technical High

Six modern plays are to be given in the Oakland Technical High school auditorium at bi-weekly intervals by the same cast that gave the recent series at the Greek Theatre. The campaign for pledges for season tickets is reported progressing favorably. The first of the plays will be given on Friday night, January 27.

The plays are to be directed by Samuel J. Hume and Irving Finckel. They will be given under the auspices of the School Women's Club of Oakland.

Ex-Pastor, Confessed Thief Reveals Story of His Life

Rev. Rex Hascall Says Booze
Started Him On Career
of Crime.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 12.—Rev. Rex Hascall, erstwhile Baptist preacher of Oregon and at present holding the spotlight of interest here, today heralded Friday the 13th as his lucky day. In his cell in the county jail here he displayed no displeasure at the turn of events which landed him in the jail yesterday, but rather termed the event one which holds promise of "plenty of opportunity for unimpeachable study of philosophy."

The life story of Hascall, alias MacDonald, alias Harry Hascall, alias Van Smith, stands forth today as one of the most interesting characters ever held in the local jail, revealing a dual character in which he is found as a preacher, student of philosophy, world traveler, electrician and scientist and again as an arch-criminal, second-story man, bunco artist and professional criminal who follows out his criminal vocation on a philosophical basis, giving extraordinary thought to detail and to principle.

Hascall was taken into custody by Sheriff George W. Lyle, Marshal George Fallon of Santa Clara and Nightwatchman Phillips of Santa Clara, in a Santa Clara rooming house, where he was trailed and an all night search following his robbing of the homes of F. B. Bishop and Edward Bickworth, both in the Hanchett park district here.

Although armed, Hascall offered no resistance. He declares that one of his principles of criminology is to avoid bloodshed, this having been a rule that has kept him out of "sticker-up" work.

Unhesitatingly the prisoner tells of his life story. Born in Scotland about 35 years ago Hascall came to this country with his parents when but a baby. His father was himself a Baptist preacher and his mother a "saintly woman," according to the prisoner.

Hascall trained himself for the pulpit with a four and a half year course in the Baptist Theological Seminary at McMinnville, Oregon, thereafter being ordained into the ministry. Following his ordination,

REV. REX HASCALL, former Baptist minister, philosopher, student, held in San Jose jail as robber, who admits he is international crook.

he states, he spent seven years in preaching in various Oregon pulpits, principally, however, at McMinnville and Drain.

"I grew tired of deluding the world into believing that God Almighty is a fearful being, to be feared rather than to be thought of as One who is only love and goodness," Hascall said. "Preaching eternal destruction by fire and brimstone grew to be a mockery to me and so I left the pulpit."

Following his leaving the ministry, Hascall says, he started wandering the country over.

"It was in Denver, some eight years ago, when all the world seemed dark to me," says Hascall, "that I took my first drop of liquor. The first liquor led to the first burglary attempt and when I found that I was a successful criminal when drunk I knew that I could be successful sober. That was my first step into the criminal life and once into it I determined that I would play the game for all I was worth—and I have."

Hascall admits having served three and a half years in the state penitentiary of Utah on a burglary charge in Salt Lake, and further admits that he is on 10 years parole from Oregon, where he was arrested after carrying out a series of 18 burglaries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Rev. Rex Hascall, former Baptist minister of Oregon and confessed house-breaker, is not wanted by the San Francisco police, Captain of Detectives Matheson said today.

"We have searched Hascall's room at 973 Eddy street, and found nothing to indicate that he has committed any crimes in this city," Matheson said. "I am satisfied Hascall was not implicated in the California street cable car holdup. I have, however, telegraphed to Detective Sergeant McLaughlin, now in Salt Lake, to bring back one of the alleged California street holdups, to investigate Hascall's record there, and to learn whether he was an associate of the man in custody."

SUGAR MAN STRICKEN.

WOODLAND, Jan. 13.—Jack A. Lewis, Yolo county manager of the Alameda Sugar company, which has under lease 5300 acres of land in Yolo county, was stricken with paralysis while attending to his varied duties yesterday morning, and his life is despaired of. Only members of his family are allowed to see him and they have all assembled at the family home in this city.

The Modern Mother faces problems far beyond those of her forbears. She herself must be a much more competent person combining in one individual the duties of nurse, cook, teacher and moral instructor. It is no wonder that many conscientious women break under the strain, and that others drag out a miserable existence, always tired, and yet unable to take a day's vacation. Such women will find themselves benefited and their burdens made easier by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which was made for suffering women, and does not fail to relieve them.

FADS AVOIDED BY COLLEGES OF U. S.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—A significant feature of a recent comprehensive study of the American college curriculum is that "fads and fashions" which have been planted in the soil of the American college have never won their way into a permanent place in the American college program. Dr. R. L. Kelly, executive secretary, told the Association of American Colleges here today.

The college has frequently been charged with having no program in particular and with wandering rather aimlessly through the field of human knowledge," he said.

"In practically every college in the country the outstanding subject is English language and literature. The only one of the old line disciplinary subjects which still plays a prominent part in the college program is mathematics. Two subjects have come to prominence undoubtedly as a result of the war, namely the French language and literature and chemistry. With the above subjects is usually coupled history or some related subject, as political economy, sociology and politics.

"It is these subjects which the students in the American colleges are studying for the most part and this statement applies to women's colleges as well as men's and co-educational institutions. Even in the women's colleges the new subject, domestic science, has not in general attained a prominent place. In a word, it may be said that the American college does have a very definite program and that program is being carried out with marvelous uniformity throughout the entire country."

NEWBERRY GIVEN SENATE SEAT BY 46-TO-41 VOTE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The Newberry case in the formal records of the Senate had passed into history today. The Senate chamber, with that body in recess after the strain of battle ended by its 46 to 41 vote yesterday that Senator Newberry of Michigan was entitled to sit in the Senate, was strangely silent. The more than three years of uncertainty resulting from the contest of the seat by Henry Ford, Senator Newberry's defeated opponent in the 1918 election, ended with the final vote at 6:28 p. m.

Following is the vote by which Newberry was seated:

For Newberry: Ball, Brandegee, Burton, Calder, Cameron, and Cumming, Curtis, Dillingham, Edge, Ellkins, Ernst, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Gooding, Hale, Parrell, Kellogg, Keyes, Lemmon, Lodge, McCormick, McCombs, McKinley, McLean, McNary, Nelson, New, Nichols, Oddie, Page, Pepper, Phillips, Poindexter, Shortridge, Smoot, Spencer, Standfield, Sterling, Townsend, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson (Ind.), Weller and Willis—46.

SENATOR'S OPPONENTS.

Against Newberry: Achurst, Broussard, Caraway, Culberson, Dial, Fletcher, Gerry, Glass, Harris, Harrison, Hefflin, Hitchcock, Jones (New Mexico), King, McKellar, Myers, Overman, Owen, Pittman, Pomeroy, Ranswell, Robinson, Shephard, Shields, Simmons Smith, Swanson, Trammell, Underwood, Walsh (Mass.), Walsh (Mont.) and Williams—41.

Republicans against Newberry were: Borah of Idaho, Capper of Kansas, Jones of Washington, Canyon of Iowa, Ladd of North Dakota, La Follette of Wisconsin, Norris of Nebraska, Norbeck of South Dakota, and Sutherland of West Virginia.

Senators absent and not paired were: Johnson of California, Watson of Georgia and Newberry.

Senators Creve of Pennsylvania, Moses of New Hampshire and Du Pont and Delaware, who were for Newberry, were paired with Senators Kendrick of Wyoming, Reed of Missouri and Stanley of Kentucky, against him.

Michigan Solon Expresses His Satisfaction and Says All Concerned Vindicated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The Newberry case in the formal records of the Senate had passed into history today. Senators Creve of Pennsylvania, Moses of New Hampshire and Du Pont and Delaware, who were for Newberry, were paired with Senators Kendrick of Wyoming, Reed of Missouri and Stanley of Kentucky, against him.

THREE ROLL CALLS.

There were three separate roll calls on various resolutions dealing with the resolution for seating Newberry, and on each of these the same vote obtained, the forty-six Republicans holding a solid plank against Newberry's favor, against the opposition of nine Republicans and thirty-two Democrats against him.

Supporters of the resolution denouncing the Michigan Senator entered the Senate chamber at 10:30 a. m. The nine Senators of that party and thirty-two Democrats in opposition. Three Senators were paired and three against the resolution and three did not vote.

The resolution as adopted carried an amendment by Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, by which the Senate severely condemned and disapproved excessive campaign expenditures as harmful to the honor and dignity of the Senate and dangerous to the perpetuity of a free government. The amendment was accepted by the Newberry supporters.

Senator Newberry accepted the action of the Senate in a subsequent statement as "a complete vindication of myself and all concerned."

Examinations for Police Post End

Forty-three police corporals and third-year patrolmen yesterday concluded written examinations before the civil service officials for positions as assistant inspectors. There are four vacancies. The other successful candidates go on to the eligibility list.

Among those taking the examination was Michael Connolly, dismissed Wednesday by Commissioner Frank Colburn. As he has appealed to the civil service board against dismissal it was held that he was entitled to take the examination in case his appeal is later upheld.

Another who took the examination was Thomas Pardo, who has held the office of assistant inspector for a long time under a temporary appointment. He must pass the present examination to retain his position.

Mrs. Frieda Kratz, 107, of Hartford, Conn., danced three dances at a celebration recently.

CHILDREN SAVE GAS-POISONED MOTHER'S LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The startled, frightened cries of two little children unable to arouse their mother and their prompt action in summoning neighbors undoubtedly saved the life of Mrs. Avis Lippert, 32 years old, of 197 Holliday avenue, this morning. After her husband had gone to his employment Mrs. Lippert lighted the gas heater and jumped back into bed to wait while the room warmed. One of the jets failed to ignite and she was rendered unconscious by the fumes. Her two children, awakened by the sunlight, looked for their mother, discovered her in the suffocating atmosphere and ran for the neighbors. Mrs. Lippert was taken to Mission Emergency hospital. She is expected to recover.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.—Missouri's senators and national congressmen are asked to work for the passage of an amendment to the Volstead act, permitting the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines of more than half of one per cent alcoholic content, in a resolution adopted by a special committee of the Board of Aldermen.

Gresham, a close friend of the family, at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco the morning of January 10. Only the immediate family witnessed the service. The bride couple left on the limited Tuesday morning and will make their home in East Orange, N. J., where the bridegroom is established in business.

The bride was one of the popular members of the class of '23 of the State University. Her freshman year was spent at Mills.

Oil Firms to Buy Of Local Merchants

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 13.—An announcement is made by H. W. Thomas, chairman of the Bakersfield Branch of the Oil Producers' Association, that large oil companies operating in Kern county have put in effect a policy of buying all of their requirements in county towns nearest to their holdings. This will mean hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of additional business annually to county merchants, it is estimated. Supplies in the past have been bought at other points in the state. It was pointed out that one item alone would be the buying supplies for 5000 men and their families in this county.

DANISH EDUCATOR LAUDS AMERICAN SCHOOL SYSTEM

Dr. Sven V. Knudsen Tells
Rotarians U. S. Training
Plan Is Good.

Comparison between school curricula in America and Denmark was given the members of the Rotary club at a luncheon-meeting in the Hotel Oakland yesterday by Dr. Sven V. Knudsen, educator from Copenhagen, who is making a world tour of investigation of education problems.

"America has not the book learning that Denmark has in its schools," said Dr. Knudsen, "but it has accomplished more for the boy through the medium of self-government and the Boy Scout movement."

"In Denmark the Danish boy of eleven is conversant with English and Danish; at twelve with German, Swedish, Norwegian, and at fifteen with French, Latin, and perhaps Greek. Unless he can read, write and speak these languages he cannot enter university."

There the university as the school represents hard work. The university course represents six or seven years of hard study at the school and at home. When the Danish boy hears of the American curriculum he wants to come to America.

AMERICAN BOY ABLE.

"The reason for this attention to language is that Denmark, consisting of 526 islands in one peninsula, is dependent for its existence on trade with the outside world, and since the outside world is not sufficiently interested to learn Danish, it behooves the Dane to learn the outside world languages."

"In America I find a different situation. While the average American youth learns less and knows less, he is better able to cope with the world. He is trusted more than the Danish boy is. He has learned, through school government, to govern. He is able to take his place in the world and is not afraid of anything."

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau Information

"Will you kindly tell me how I can brighten a brass serving tray that has become tarnished and how to clean paint off brass?" queries a TRIBUNE reader.

Turpentine and Dutch Cleanser should remove the paint stains from brass. Oxalic acid or muriatic acid will clean brass very effectively; oxalic acid is the best, but should be well washed off before the brass is then rubbed with sweet oil and tripoli; otherwise it will soon tarnish again.

Another reader asks if there is any provision made in the proposed state soldier-loan arrangement for former service men who do not happen to have 10 per cent of the price of farm or home. Several other queries concerning this proposition have come in from time to time.

We suggest that you write to the State Veterans' Affairs Board, Sacramento, Calif., for complete information concerning the bill above referred to.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature, except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The bureau is open every day except Sunday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. If answers are desired by mail, stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve, ask THE TRIBUNE Information Bureau, Lakeside 6009.

TRIBUNE IS THANKED.

"We are already on the way to the adoption of self-government. Since 1909 we have established the Boy Scout movement and now have 12,000 boy scouts. Camping has been introduced in Denmark. We are learning to enjoy the outdoor life. We are keeping our boy scouts as a school movement and thus introducing an additional curriculum of advantage."

The Rotary club, through its president, Carsten Schmidt, extended the thanks of the club to THE TRIBUNE for its action in cooperating with the organization in the prosperity drive by publishing free advertisements on the poster-campaign started some time ago. In addition to the poster message of President Harding there are posters from Secretaries Hoover, Hughes and Postmaster-General Hayes.

The club also acknowledged an appreciation of its efforts during the war, uttered by the sister of King Alfred of Belgium, to whom some 15,000 pairs of shoes were sent for the Belgian children during the war.

PIEDMONT VOTES ON NEW SCHOOL BOND ISSUE FEB. 7

Proposal Fixes $100,000 As Needed to Enlarge City's Housing Facilities.

PIEDMONT, Jan. 12.—The rapid growth of Piedmont has led to the call for a $100,000 school bond election on February 7. The original survey made two years ago reported that housing facilities should be provided for 400 high school students. The building which is now nearing completion will accommodate 600 students. A new class of 75 will enter the high school on January 23 and this will bring the total up to at least 500 students.

Analyzing the school situation, Superintendent H. W. Jones of Piedmont high school, said today: "Two years ago the sum of $250,000 was voted for the erection of a high school building. This was necessitated through the crowded condition of the Oakland schools which formerly accommodated the high school boys and girls of Piedmont. The Oakland board of education arranged to take care of the Piedmont students for one more year. Piedmont agreed to pay Oakland back when her school was completed, by taking care of an equal number of Oakland students for an equal length of time. By this agreement Piedmont must take care of 200 Oakland students for one year."

SURVEY OF EXPERTS.

"A survey of Piedmont was made by W. J. Cooper, who was at that time superintendent of Piedmont high. A careful list of all Piedmont pupils in Oakland schools was made. A survey of the city of Piedmont was made to determine how many residences it was possible to accommodate within the limits of the city. On these figures were based estimates as to the probable number of high school students for some years to come. The survey reported that there should be provided a high school that would accommodate 400 pupils. The school board then let a contract for a building for that number of persons."

"It was estimated that 250 pupils would start. Provisions for that number were made in temporary quarters and when the term opened 350 pupils sought admission. At present there are 430 students housed in the temporary school. On January 23, when the new class of 75 comes in, at least a portion of the senior class will probably be moved into the east wing of the new building."

ADDITIONAL EXCAVATING.

"When the board discovered that the building provided for in the original bond issue would be too small, arrangements were made for extensive improvements. It was necessary to do additional excavating, and rearrange the plans of the building to get in six additional class rooms."

"Additional school fixtures were also necessary as well as chairs and stage fittings for the auditorium. In the original contract no cafeteria was provided. But the need was so imperative that it was decided to put one in. It was also estimated that it would cost $15,000 to grade the grounds, put in walks and retaining walls, and do landscape gardening. The sum of $15,000 is required for athletic fields for both boys and girls."

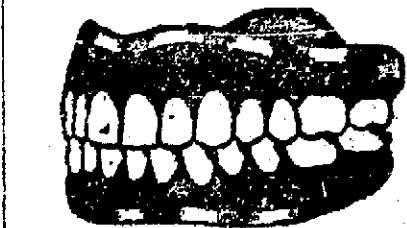

"In conformance with the agreement with the Oakland schools, the Piedmont high school is taking care of forty Oakland students this year. Piedmont will take as many as possible each year until Oakland is paid off."

"It is expected that the entire school building will be completed and ready for occupancy between the middle of March and April 1."

Harold Bauer
records his art exclusively for
The DUO-ART
PIANO

"When I first began recording for the Duo-Art, it was the reproducing of my playing that was interesting to me. Now it is the correcting—the 'working-up' of the record, so to speak. Do you see? For the first time I stand aside and impersonally listen to my own playing. I am both critic and artist. Artist, because I can build—improve on the performance.

"I can listen to myself playing. I can hear my performance as a whole and I can repeat a single passage again and again. And I can change what I wish. I can remodel and refine.

"Do you comprehend? It is a new art. When I finally sign the record-roll, it is more than simply my playing. It is my carefully considered artistic conception of the music. As such, it is preserved—a new and wonderful form of musical creation."

Harold Bauer

The STEINWAY DUO-ART PIANO

Today, at the zenith of his powers, Harold Bauer makes reproducing rolls exclusively for the Duo-Art. Moreover, his Duo-Art rolls are the only American rolls that represent his own exact, authentic playing—that have been edited by himself alone.

You can hear the true Harold

Bauer solely in his personal appearances or on the marvelous Duo-Art piano. There is no other way.

This is equally true of Paderewski, Cortot, Hofmann, Rubenstein, Gabilowitch, Busoni, Grainger, Ganz, Friedheim, Schmitt, Leginska, La Forge, and scores of others.

When may we play Harold Bauer for you on the Duo-Art piano?

COUNTRY-WIDE THRIFT DRIVE OPENS TUESDAY

Merits of Budgets, Bank Accounts and Method to Be Generally Taught.

A nation-wide drive to teach the American public thrift will be launched next Tuesday and continue all week. Organizations and associations throughout the country have been urged to take part in the drive. The lesson to be given to the public will be that thrift is not hoarding but that it is summed up in the "Ten Financial Point Creed," on which the National Thrift Week campaign is based. These ten points are:

1. Work and Earn; Make a Budget; Record Expenditures; Have a Bank Account; Carry Life Insurance; Own Your Own Home; Make a Will; Invest in Reliable Securities; Pay Your Bills Promptly; Share with Others.

The Oakland committee, consisting of Ben Shapiro, chairman; F. Bruce Maibach, A. J. Mount, Irving Kahn and A. G. Gishman, has secured active co-operation of many clubs and business organizations as well as the city government to do their part. Benjamin Franklin has been chosen as the patron of the drive and the patron of this movement. A poster picture of Franklin, and the slogan "Spend Time and Money Wisely," will take the message of thrift into every part of the United States and Canada.

In this annual observance of Thrift Week there will be three major emphases: To organize a Budget League with a goal of 500,000 persons pledged to manage their personal or family incomes on the budget plan; to give national recognition to the many great services which Benjamin Franklin rendered to the American Republic in its early days; to encourage the spending in co-operation with retail merchants' associations, by special window displays, thrift sales and other features.

Oakland dealers are rounding up 10 automobiles to meet the special train from Los Angeles next Thursday at 8 a. m. at the sixteenth street station. Hundreds of other dealers are coming to the convention from northern and central parts of the state. According to General Chairman Albert B. Korn, the San Francisco Real Estate Board will send not less than 100 members. They will arrive in a body Thursday morning at 9:15 when the convention is called to order.

Thirty real estate boards have entered the home town talk contest for the president's perpetual trophy. Many board secretaries are entering the achievement contest.

The national president, Irving B. Hart, will arrive Wednesday morning from Chicago, and with National Secretary Tom S. Ingersoll will be a guest of the San Francisco Real Estate Board at a 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening. At this time the San Francisco board will discuss plans with Hart and Ingersoll for the national convention in San Francisco May 31.

Governor Stephens will be the first speaker at the state convention.

Welcomed.

PLEASANTON, Jan. 12.—The city hall was packed Wednesday evening with an enthusiastic audience who came to welcome Miss Elsie Benedict and to hear her describe conditions in Europe and to tell what the Junior Red Cross is doing. The Pleasanton Auxiliary of the American Red Cross and the Pleasanton Junior Red Cross combined in planning the reception and invitations to the entire community were issued. The affair was the first since her arrival home and will be one of the few at which she will appear.

Mrs. Thomas Silver and Miss Elsie Trillingham, the heads of the two organizations, were in the receiving line with Mrs. C. L. Crellin, Mrs. W. F. Schwen, Mrs. C. A. Gale and Mrs. J. R. Crankshaw and the guests were received in the clubhouse of the Woman's Club, which was artistically arranged for the affair. # PIGGLY WIGGLY

All Over the World

Nearly every day a PIGGLY WIGGLY Store is opened in a new town or a link is added to an already existing chain.

Why This Phenomenal Growth and Success?

It is the old story—the man who can make with the same energy in the same length of time two blades of grass grow where one grew or the man who can sell one hundred pairs of shoes in a day as many more times as valuable as the man who can sell one pair of shoes in a day and has a greater value to society.

In a PIGGLY WIGGLY Store one hundred people can be served in the same length of time as it would take to serve ten people in any other store.

The primary idea of PIGGLY WIGGLY is that waste is wrong and that the elimination of waste should begin with humanity's first need—FOOD.

This is the one big reason why there is an urgent demand from nearly every city and town in the United States and foreign countries for PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores.

Because, she said, Sara Pitesa was not financially able to take care of her, Mary Mirosevic, 25 years old, this morning canceled the license she had obtained last Monday to wed him, and married Nick Surjan Bunba.

The license which Miss Mirosevic asked to have nullified was already in the hands of the priest who was to marry her to Pitesa. Yesterday her brother told Marriage License Clerk Stuart Gemmell that his sister had decided to marry Bunba instead of Pitesa, because the latter did not have sufficient income to support her, while Bunba, on the contrary, had. A new license was issued today, and Miss Mirosevic and Bunba were married by Judge Mortimer Smith.

Miss Mirosevic told Clerk Gemmell that she was not superstitious about either changing her mind or marrying on Friday, the 13th.

DORMITORY PLANS AT U. C. ARE GIVEN OUT BY BARROWS

Buildings to Cost $300,000
Each; First to Be Ready
Within 16 Months.

BERKELEY, Jan. 12.—Plans for the construction of dormitories on the University of California campus were officially announced for the first time this morning at the first university meeting of the new semester held in Harmon Gymnasium. That the first dormitory will be ready for occupancy within the next year or sixteen months was announced by President David P. Barrows, who said a comprehensive scheme for the erection of campus homes for students is being prepared by the regents. Each dormitory, the president announced, will cost about $300,000, with accommodations for 160 students.

"It is the plan of the regents," President Barrows said, "to build two dormitories a year, one for men and one for women, for at least six successive years, or until the demand for housing accommodations is satisfied."

"There are at the present time 4000 students of both sexes, without proper homes and food, and with practically no social life," said President Barrows. "It is time that this condition be remedied, and for that reason dormitories will be constructed by the regents."

President Barrows gave words of counsel to the freshmen class. He cautioned them to good behavior. "There are no gumshoes on the campus," he declared. "All who come here are supposed to come in their full maturity. There is no reason for misbehavior."

Doctor Barrows also urged the members of the senior class to study hard, to get good grades, and to graduate, and also call upon the alumni for support in meeting the many great problems which he said were confronting the State University. He announced that registration at the university numbered eight more students this year than at the same time last year. He said that this number will be greatly increased within the next two weeks following the graduation at southern high schools and the registration of an unusually large class from the Junior College in the southern branch of the university at Los Angeles.

The change of date, which was granted, was made for the convenience of her attorney, C. A. McGee.

Because it is to be a retrial instead of a new trial, Mrs. Clark will not be re-arrested or required to post bond. # APPORTIONMENT IN STATE LIKELY TO BE DELAYED

Fresno Conference to Take Up the Plans Urged by Agriculturists.

From every section and almost every court, the state delegates will attend the apportionment conference in Fresno tomorrow. Assurances of the various delegates are being given to push through the determination to push through the apportionment plan for representation has been given in the pledges of thirty members of commerce and farm bureaus.

There have been three plans discussed in the agricultural counties, and it will be the object of this conference to unite all of its support on one. Briefly the plans are: One calling for one senator from each county regardless of population; one asking for a senator from each county provided no senator represents less than 10,000 persons; and asking for forty senators, apportioned according to population, but putting the limit for county, or city and county, to four. In addition there is an alteration of this third plan which would limit any county to no more than four senators, apportioned according to population, but putting the limit for county, or city and county, to four.

The first plan is backed by Van Bernard, the former assemblyman from Glenn county, president of the Fourteen Counties Association and a leader in the fight for an improved agricultural college at Davis. Assemblyman Guy Windrem of Madera fathers the second plan, while Assemblyman Charles Cleary of Tulare, member of the committee that investigated and prepared the bill for the Commission a year ago, is responsible for the third.

WILL CONSIDER ALL PLANS.

The meeting will start off by turning all plans over to a committee to be composed of George T. McCabe, Modesto, chairman; Ellis Franklin of Colfax; Assemblyman Van Bernard, Butte City; Assemblyman O. W. Smith of Santa Barbara; Assemblyman J. J. Forrester of Redlands; Senator Herbert C. Johnson of San Jose; Senator J. L. C. Irwin of Hanford; Assemblyman Guy Windrem of Madera, and Bismarck Bruck of St. Helena.

With all of the interest being displayed in reapportionment of the assembly and senatorial districts it becomes more and more apparent that there is to be no special session of the legislature this year, and that the question will be put off until next winter. The Fresno meeting, doubtless, will request that the special session be called at the earliest possible date, but until Congress passes the national apportionment bill, Stephens can have no basis on which to issue his call.

MAY DELAY ACTION.

Congressman Selig of the apportionment committee in Washington recently said that he did not believe that the measure would be passed for some time, and there are other voices from the capital to the same effect. A merry war is being conducted on the question with little chance for decisive action.

So far as congressmen are concerned, California may be left just where it is until after the taking of another census. Congressman Barbour, one of the loudest in the light to prevent an increase in the size of the House, said this week: "I am convinced the plan now is to endeavor to prevent any reapportionment, in a situation which, in my mind, is a direct violation of the constitution. It is plainly the intent of the constitution that there should be a reapportionment every ten years."

The other side argues that there is to be a census in 1925 and that glaring mistakes of the 1920 census will be corrected. They say that eleven states will lose in representation unless the House is enlarged.

YEAR IS EXPRESS.

Some fear is expressed by Barbour that even if the 435 amendment is adopted by the House, it will fail in the senate. This is because there are 22 senatorial votes from states which would lose representation under his plan. They will oppose the bill, he predicts, and this bloc, aided by friends, will have sufficient strength to make senate action very difficult.

The proposition of the 435 plan is afraid to report any bill out of committee because of the fear that any bill providing for more than 435 congressmen would not pass, says Barbour.

If the meeting in Fresno tomorrow cannot direct its actions toward an apportionment, it will aim at the next regular session of the legislature. It is admitted that, until Congress reaches some sort of understanding, there will be considerable shooting in the dark. If the agricultural sections can emerge from the Fresno meeting agreed on a program, leaders say it is all that can be expected. The object of the program, of course, is to prevent the large centers, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Oakland, from gaining control of the legislature.

Horse Trainer of Former Days Dies

Fred T. Hinkley, well known trainer during the palmy days of the Emeryville race track, died this morning in a local hospital, following a week's illness. Hinkley was a favorite jockey when horse racing in California was at its height. He was a familiar figure to the fans who attended the races. Hinkley trained Jack Munnally, Neva Lee and other horses which made the Sierra Nevada stables famous.

Born in Oakland, Hinkley represented one of the pioneer families here. He was 51 years old. A week ago he was stricken with pneumonia from which he did not rally. A wife, Mrs. May Hinkley, 1220 Jefferson street, survives. Funeral services will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. at a private chapel, Fifteenth and Jefferson streets.

Woman Injured by Auto Awarded $4000

For injuries received when an automobile ran up on to the sidewalk and knocked her down, Miss Elizabeth Rose was today awarded $4000 damages in a suit against W. C. Hainbreck of 5813 Ocean View Drive, driver of the automobile, and his wife, Mary Hainbreck, who were the defendants. The accident occurred May 15, 1921, at East Fourteenth street and Twenty-fourth avenue. Miss Rose received a fracture of the left leg, and injuries which she claimed permanently affected her sight and hearing. She brought suit for $7500. The verdict allowing her $4000 was returned by a jury in Superior Judge Harris' court.

"Eat All You Want, 25c"—One Has 16 'Sinkers,' 4 Coffees

Sixteen doughnuts and four cups of coffee. That is the championship breakfast record established by a patron of an Oakland restaurant. On December 27 a 25-cent policy was adopted by C. A. Appledorn, proprietor.

ON BOY! WATTA FEED IM GLAD ALL I HAD WAS A QUARTER— IF I HAD SPENT 30¢ I'D A FOUNDLED

"All you can eat for 25 cents," sounds like an echo of the Low Cost of Living Days. But that is his story and he's going to stick to it.

Established the restaurant on a co-operative basis," said Appledorn today. "We opened our business on December 27. On that day we fed 32 persons. Yesterday we fed 300."

Appledorn pointed to a sign which read: "If we find we can serve justice to a man, we'll do our present prices, we will do so. You can help out the cost of meals by not taking your plate more than you can eat. Eat all you want."

ALL YOU CAN EAT FOR 25¢

ALL I DO AROUND THIS JOINT IS SWEEP UP VEST BUTTONS

The proprietor of the inn procured his cleaning equipment from a local shiner and his chef, Fred Le Baube, served in that capacity for a steel manufacturing plant. Five others beside Appledorn are working in the inn—a cook, a dishwasher, a steward, a waiter and a cashier.

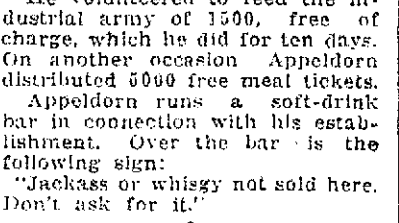

Referring to the "champion eater," Appledorn said:

"Sixteen doughnuts and four cups of coffee is a real record, but I am expecting to see it broken by some hungry diner any time, as there is no limit on the amount a man can have at one meal."

When recruits for Coxey's army were being gathered throughout the country, there were about 1500 jobless men massed together in Oakland.

There's nothing wrong with these men," Appledorn told the authorities. "The trouble is with their stomachs."

WHAT D'Y MEAN— RAISE TH' PRICE?

He volunteered to feed the industrial army of 1920, free of charge, which he did for ten days. On another occasion Appledorn distributed 5000 free meal tickets.

Appledorn runs a sort of dining hall in connection with his establishment. Over the bar is the following sign:

"Jackass or whispy not sold here. Don't ask for it."

Tenant Dispossessed From Site for Pound

The city council this morning dispossessed Manuel Gomez from the East Oakland tract to be used for the municipal pound, and passed an ordinance appropriating $17,000 for the rock wall for Lake Merritt. Gomez has been a tenant of the city for some time under permission from the council. Work on the Lake Merritt wall has already begun.

The city engineer was directed to prepare plans for the improvement of the East Oakland tract, and to have the city engineer, for laying sidewalks on Grove from Twenty-seventh to Thirty-sixth street, and on East Twelfth from Fruitvale avenue to High street.

Educational Section Of League to Meet

The Educational Section of the Public Welfare League will hold its monthly meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the club room in the annex of the First Congregational church, Thirteenth street near Clay street. The meeting is open to the public.

A short talk will be delivered by R. H. Linforth, attorney, on local work of the State Board of Pharmacy in its efforts to curb the drug traffic. The principal address will be given by R. H. Chamberlain Jr., former secretary of the Board of Pardoners, in which he will discuss the reorganization of the police department and rearrangement of the lower courts, as provided for in the new charter scheme.

Traveler Starts On Twelfth Orient Trip

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—Harry J. Eddo, traveling in the interests of the Reid Brothers, will sail Saturday on the Golden State for China, the Philippines and Dutch East Indies. This is Eddo's twelfth trip through the Orient.

EXPENDITURES QUESTIONED AT WATER HEARING

General Manager, Wilhelm Tells of Salaries and San Pablo Dam.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The various expenses of the East Bay Water Company in connection with the construction of the San Pablo dam were questioned in detail today before the State Railroad Commission. City Attorney Leon Gray of Oakland was anxious to bring out every financial fact and to place in connection with the operator of the company in order to maintain the claim of the municipalities on the Eastbay shore that the proposed request for increased rates are not justified.

George H. Wilhelm, general manager of the company, was the witness of the morning. He was questioned in much detail as to the salaries of employees working on the San Pablo dam project. He explained that Engineer Magister, who had done much of the designing, had been partly paid by San Pablo and partly from the general engineering construction account. Asked as to his own salary, he declared that he had given considerable time to the San Pablo project, and so had received some of his remuneration from that source, some from the general engineering department, and the balance was charged to general executive expense. He said he thought that salaries for San Pablo represented about 3 percent of the total construction salaries of the company.

First Woman Notary In Alameda Dies

ALAMEDA, Jan. 12.—Miss Clara Remmel, first woman notary public in Alameda, died yesterday, following a long illness. She was one of the best known women residents of the city. She was an active member of the Christ Episcopal church, of the Altar Guild, the Daughters, Mrs. W. F. Jackson, in Oakland. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. H. W. Mantz of Redwood, and two brothers, Dr. Alva Remmel and Bert Remmel, both of Oakland.

Anna T. Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Peterson, died at her home, 1225 Fair Oaks avenue, yesterday, and the funeral service will take place tomorrow morning in the Haggar parlors, 1524 Webster street. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

She was 18 years of age. She is survived by her mother, her stepfather, Joseph Peterson, and three sisters, Alice Gray, Ethel and Madeline Peterson.

The funeral services for Frederick P. Hoeck will be held in the Fowler chapel, 2244 Santa Clara avenue, under the auspices of Oak Grove Lodge, F. & A. M. Hoeck, a former book dealer in Alameda, died at sea, en route to this city from Guatemala.

Mrs. Peete Demands Freedom in Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—A last effort was made today before the Supreme Court to obtain the release from San Quentin penitentiary of Mrs. Louise Peete, sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Jacob Denton in Los Angeles. The woman's attorneys, D. E. Chapin and L. R. Taylor of Los Angeles, attempted this morning to obtain from the highest court in California a remedy denied them last week by Federal Judge Doelling in the United States Court. They applied for a writ of habeas corpus and a writ of review, basing their claim on the alleged unconstitutionality of the thirteen juror provision of the law. Mrs. Peete was tried by the alternate jurors, one of the original twelve having been taken ill.

Missing Girl Found; Man Under Arrest

Clem Norwood, 26 years old, an employee of the Western Union Telegraph company and son of C. J. Norwood, local real estate dealer, is in the city jail charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was arrested last night by inspectors Alex Trotter and Joe Johnson upon the complaint of Mrs. Kathryn Furney, 3433 Elm street, who alleged that her 17-year-old daughter, after having been missing since Monday, was located in a room at 630 Ninth street, which she alleged had been rented by Norwood. Norwood denied that he had been in the company of the girl. He said he knew her but slightly. The girl was taken to the detention home.

Autoist Sued for Grave and Headstone

The cost of the grave and the headstone for Ignacia Gloria Nevis is charged against Charles Fasshauer in a damage suit filed today by her husband, Manuel Nevis, who asserts that his wife met her death through Fasshauer's carelessness in driving an automobile.

The accident in which Mrs. Nevis met her death occurred on Seventh street June 8 last, when Fasshauer is alleged to have run her down with his automobile while she was crossing the street. Nevis asks $5000 damages, including $500 for funeral expenses, $150 for the cost of the grave, and $51 for the cost of the headstone.

Autoist in Court On Liquor Charge

George J. Heason, captain during the late war, and at present an employee of a local lumber company, today faced a jury in Superior Judge L. S. Church's court on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. According to Deputy District Attorney Frank Shay, Heason collided with an automobile truck, driven by V. Y. Poole, at San Pablo avenue and Jones street, Berkeley, November 4 of last year. No one was injured but Heason himself.

GARBAGE DUMP SLIGHTLY, SWEET SCENTED, CLAIM

The new garbage dump on the West Oakland waterfront, guaranteed to be rat-proof and fly-proof, was opened to traffic this afternoon by the city officials.

The new dump has been in preparation for some time. It lies to the south of the West Fourteenth street extension, and the garbage wagons travel 1000 feet along a trestle and then turn southward into the dump. Sand pumps and draggers throw the garbage over the trestle and rats will not be attracted.

Engineers assert that the garbage dump is a fine one and almost justifies the term of "best garbage dump in the United States" except for one thing. They assert that at high tide the incoming waters will wash stray bits of garbage upon the bay shores near the Sixteenth street station, creating a new atmosphere for the Southern Pacific's passengers. This, however, is admitted to be debatable. The new dump will be given a thorough dry-out before its ways will be changed.

S. P. TO RESTORE PRE-WAR RATES FOR WEEK-ENDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—Return of week-end excursion fares abolished in 1918 while the railroads were under United States control was indicated today by the approval of the State Railroad Commission to the application of the Southern Pacific Company to make such fares effective on one day's notice from Oakland and San Francisco to two points in Northern California, including towns in Contra Costa county.

Reduced fares to Northern California points are offered to meet similar fares by the Western Pacific, which were based on one and one-third of the regular fares. Northern California towns receiving the benefit of the reduced week-end rates are: Biggs, Chico, Colusa, Durham, Grizzly, Live Oak, Marysville, Orville, Sacramento, Woodland and Yuba City. From Oakland stations the reductions apply to all the towns mentioned, while from San Francisco the new rates are applicable only to Yuba City and Colusa.

New week-end fares, including Sunday, Saturday to Monday and Friday to Tuesday, are offered by the Southern Pacific from San Francisco and Oakland Pier, Oakland Sixteenth street, and Berkeley to Antioch, Bay Point, Nichols, Pittsburg and Richmond. This reduction is a tariff which the Santa Fe has indicated it intends to establish applicable to these points.

NEAR-COLLISION PREVENTS FERRY ENTERING SLIP

Two thousand impatient commuters were delayed half an hour yesterday when the Southern Pacific ferry steamer Berkeley was "cut out" while attempting to make her slip at the San Francisco wharf. Just as the big ferry was pointing her nose toward the pier, a small tug with a lighter in tow approached. There was an exchange of whistles, followed by alarm signals. The Berkeley had to be veered around subtly to avoid a collision. She then found herself stretched across the slip, and all of her efforts to back into the stream proved futile. She was wedged in her position, and it was not until the boat 20 minutes behind had entered and left the slip that her officers managed finally to coax her into the Key Route pier, where the passengers were discharged at 9 o'clock, just one-half hour behind the schedule.

Student Who Fought Officer Is Released

Friday, the 12th, may be an unlucky day for some people, but for George Fortune, a student of the University of California, it is lucky. Fortune was arrested in a fight by Sergeant Tom O'Neill in the Oakland Municipal Auditorium on Wednesday evening while attending the prize fights. This morning he appeared before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell on a charge of battery and vulgar language. When O'Neill tried to get Fortune and his friend, Daryl Pettit, also a university student, to leave the auditorium a fight started. To subdue Fortune the officer was forced to hit him over the head with his club. Pettit was arrested on a charge of being drunk.

After Fortune had pleaded guilty Judge Tyrrell asked O'Neill if he thought the student was punished enough. The officer replied: "If I do, and I would like to see the case dropped, as he has paid for the uniform which was torn during the fight."

Judge Tyrrell suspended judgment on both charges.

Both of the students appeared in court yesterday morning and were fined $5 each after they pleaded guilty to charges of being drunk.

Lecture Given On Water Distribution

An illustrated lecture on the subject of "Collecting and Distributing a Domestic Water Supply" was delivered yesterday to the student body of the Emerson school by E. E. Thacker, assistant to the general manager of the East Bay Water company. The lecture dealt with the manner in which the water supply is collected, stored, purified and distributed.

Principal Ewing and Mrs. Tuckett, in charge of the science classes, plan to devote the early part of the spring semester to the study of water.

Junior Red Cross Officials Named

Directors for the Junior Red Cross shop were elected at the annual meeting, held yesterday in the Twelfth street store. Judge C. E. Snook, representing the Alameda County Public Health Center, was named chairman with Miss Florence Le Gank, director of household economics. Mrs. Sue L. Fratis is secretary. Committee chairmen were named.

STUDENTS' ORDEAL. ABERDEEN, Jan. 9.—Three candidates for the students' council of Aberdeen University were ducked in water, hounded with deluge of fruit and then paraded through the streets.

NON-PARTISANS AT MODESTO TO LAUNCH DRIVE

Radicals With North Dakota Idea Have Difficulty in Obtaining Hall.

MODESTO, Jan. 12.—Delegates here to attend the opening meeting of the Non-Partisan League tonight will have to look around for another place to meet. It had been planned to hold tonight's organization meeting in the high school auditorium, but an opera is to be held there. It is probable that the labor temple will be chosen by the leaguers.

The high school auditorium will be available for tomorrow, but there is opposition against allowing the meetings to be held there. The plan to feed and house all the delegates free of charge will go through with slight modifications, it is believed. The high school cafeteria management has refused to serve them there, but the farmers who are interested in the league are planning to take lunches to the auditorium. There is no way to tell how many delegates are coming. Estimates run from 50 to 200.

Walter Thomas Mills will arrive this afternoon from Berkeley. He is a former organizer of the Socialist party and has been through all the rights of the Non-Partisan League in North Dakota. C. W. Johnson, president of the Stanislaus County Farmers' Union, which is sponsoring the meeting here, said today that up to six months ago Mills was not in favor of opening the fight to establish the league in California. Since then, Johnson said, the sentiment has been turning toward the league.

Walter Yarrow, who recently resigned as counsel for the Oil Workers' Union, is being advertised as one of the speakers at the convention tomorrow. He is believed to be in Mexico.

Fraud Charged in Sheep Buying Deal

W. P. Frick, millionaire timber and operator of Oakland, today charged James Gallagher Jr. with having deceived him as to the cost of a thousand head of sheep which he had commissioned Gallagher to purchase for him, in a suit filed for the recovery of $1250. Frick asserts that Gallagher bought a thousand ewes for him at $10 a head, and told him he paid $11 a head. He demands return of the extra $1000, and also of the $250 dollars commission which he says he paid Gallagher.

Three Horses Killed By Santa Fe Train

KNIGHTSEN, Jan. 12.—Santa Fe passenger train No. 22 struck and killed three horses and smashed up a heavy wagon belonging to T. McDonald, Stockton contractor, at a crossing near here today. No persons were injured, all having jumped from the wagon before the crash. The contracting outfit was en route to the Knightsen irrigation district project.

THE FACTS AND A CHALLENGE.

The statement issued by the Alameda County Anti-Division League, which appears elsewhere in today's Tribune, records the first serious attempt to present comprehensive and detailed figures of authentic source to show the consequences should the scheme to divide Alameda County and set up the separate city and county of Oakland succeed. These figures have been compiled by experts and verified by other experts. They are correct as to statements of fact and wherein they assume to be estimates of costs, they give the minimum estimate.

It is also to be noted that the Anti-Division League offers the proponents of county division a proposal which if accepted should result in removing all doubtful figures and estimates from the discussion of this question. The proposition is fair, simple and easily complied with.

It is proposed that the Alameda Charter League, which is officially sponsoring the scheme of county division, appoint one expert and the Anti-Division League appoint another expert, the two to form a committee to go over these figures and verify their correctness and modify them where found to be incorrect. In the event these two experts are unable to agree, a third expert is to be selected, the Charter League and the Anti-Division League to share equally the cost of the third expert.

Here is an opportunity for the proponents of county division to play absolutely fair with the people. Here is a means by which all dispute as to the exact facts may be eliminated and the people permitted to know the undisputed facts. County division and Oakland's separation from the remainder of the county is too serious and important a question to be determined by anything else than an intelligent judgment based upon the exact facts and all of the pertinent facts.

It is shown by the expert figures that under the new scheme of government proposed by the divisionists the minimum tax rate of Oakland will be $5.43 on each $100, as compared to the present combined city and county rates of $4.91.

In calculating this rate, the very minimum expense possible under the new government is taken as a basis, though it is perfectly known that the minimum cost never prevails. Furthermore, the allowance for improvements is the same as now provided for this fiscal year in Oakland in the city and county budgets. Inasmuch as the division advocates assert that no improvements are now being made, this must be conceded to be the minimum for this item.

Thus it is made plain that at the very lowest cost the new government proposed by the divisionists would at the outset mean a tax rate of $5.43, or 53 cents more than the present county and city rates combined.

This is an answer to the futile cry that division and disintegration will effect a saving to the taxpayers. The increase in the tax burden will be larger than indicated by the figures issued by the Anti-Division League, because the minimum possible is never the fortune of the taxpayer. Under the proposed charter there is no limit to the tax rate. The men volubly promising to lower rates took good care to fix no maximum above which the tax rate could not go.

MR. BRIAND QUILTS.

With characteristic impetuosity, Premier Briand of France has tendered his resignation under criticism from the parliament and France is now in the midst of the problem of forming a new government. Two elements never let an opportunity pass to assail Mr. Briand's policies. They were the extreme conservatives, who were ever suspicious of the premier's former Socialist connections, and the extremists in the demand for greater severity in dealing with Germany.

It was the latter element which provoked the premier's resignation. Reports of the Cannes meeting of the Allied Supreme Council to the effect that it was agreed to grant a moratorium to Germany on reparation payments and that a new agreement had been reached for an Anglo-French alliance provoked heated criticism among the members of the parliament. Some of this was sincere, much of it the sniping of political adversaries.

But Mr. Briand's policies, so far as they can be impartially judged by the bystander, seem generally sound and dictated by the immutable requirements of circumstances over which neither Mr. Briand nor the French government have any control. His resignation appears specially unfortunate at this time.

Mr. Poincare, a former President of France, who has been summoned by President Millerand to form a new cabinet, will face the same difficulties encountered by Mr. Briand. He may prove sublimely far-seeing in insistence for stronger terms for Germany, against any amelioration of the reparations conditions, but in the end he too must face the inevitable.

MORE ABOUT SHIPS.

The Nation's Business, organ of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, puts the ship piling situation in this succinct form:

World merchant tonnage of the sort that actually carries overseas trade did not increase during the war as rapidly as in earlier years, according to the Commissioner of Navigation. Ninety-five percent of the world's sea-borne commerce is now carried in steel steamers. In the seven years before 1914 the tonnage of steel steamers around the world increased by 45 percent; in the seven years following 1914 it has increased only 30 percent.

In the two periods of seven years each, however, the relation of the new steel tonnage of the United States was reversed. In the period before 1914 our tonnage grew by 1,260,000, whereas the tonnage of the rest of the world increased by 11,600,000. In the period since 1914 our new tonnage was 10,500,000 and that of the rest of the world 2,300,000. Today, we have 26 percent of the world's steel tonnage, as against 10 percent in 1914 and 1907, and the Commissioner of Navigation believes that our own steel steamers have carrying capacity for 75 percent of our foreign trade and the coasting trade. Last year it actually carried 50 percent.

Now if the ocean tonnage flying the American flag is capable of carrying seven-fifths percent of the foreign trade of the United States it is also capable of extending the importance of our foreign trade, and particularly our export business. Ships are great trade getters as well as trade carriers. American ships in foreign ports, where American agents look after their business, will prove one of the most powerful agencies for strengthening the position of this country in the foreign trade field.

But it is possible that the merchant marine may do vastly more for the country. It will put a larger quantity of American commodities in foreign markets. This means calling up the productive resources of the country to send more goods to foreign countries, which in turn calls for a larger employment of labor and capital.

It will not do for the American people to lose what interest they have felt in the question of an adequate merchant marine. It represents a large investment and it is capable of large benefit to the whole people. Congress should be pressed continually with the urgency of enacting legislation that will insure the permanency of the American merchant marine.

An eastern newspaper is surprised to learn about floods in Arizona. What will it think about the report of a man freezing to death at Redding, California?

PRINTER BEN'S MANLY DOCTRINE.

It will soon be time to begin to work out personal budgets for 1922, and by a well-ordered chance January 17 brings the birthday of Benjamin Franklin, marked this year by the opening of a Thrift Week. Franklin would have advocated setting something aside for investment each and every week during the coming months.

Most Americans learned their first lessons in systematic saving during the war. France, which has perished the virtues of thrift for centuries, finds it has stood her in good stead during financial strains that might otherwise have brought national bankruptcy. The present administration of the United States is doing its part toward encouraging thrift, and the new Treasury Savings Certificates have been made unusually attractive to the small investor. They may be had in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000, and may be bought any month in the year at $25, $50 and $100, maturing in five years from the date of purchase.

The road for the small investor has grown smoother of late years. Bankers and money kings may be heard on the partial payment plan, and for those who prefer to let others do the guessing as to future values, there are the savings banks, which generally pay more than before the war, and almost at one's elbow are channels to put away whatever surplus may be left after current expenses are covered for. It is a good plan to keep the Thrift Week idea in mind in laying out of the 1922 budget, even before the week arrives.—New York Sun.

DAILY ALMANAC

Friday, January 13.

This is Friday, the thirteenth. Like as not the alarm clock this morning stuck and you arrived late at work. The boss may not have believed the story. He never does. Hugh Orr, inventor of the flax dressing machine, was born in 1717. How did flax dress before Orr? Samuel Woodworth, author of the "Old Oaken Bucket," was born in 1785, and the parodist, shortly after, sharpened their pencils and champed nervously on their typewriters. Yes, we know, typewriters were not invented. Elizabeth E. Beer, who wrote the "Bucket" and who, under the pseudonym Act, wrote to change her name, was born in 1827. In 1832 Horatio Alger, who wrote so many of those books we used to read, was born. There was always a good boy and a bad 'un, a good squire and a bad 'un. Virtue always triumphed and the mortgage never floored the widow.

I knew it was Friday
The moment that dawn broke with its clatter
Upon my front lawn.
The eggs, they were burned
And the coffee was weak;
The butter so strong
That it stood up to speak.
I lost a vest button
While riding to work.
I lost six bits shooting
The cubes with a clatter.
Next time it is Friday
And date is thirteen;
I will close all my shutters

A great many persons are complaining about the new peace dollars. They do not stick and it is asserted, they are as unstable when piled as are the foundations of peace itself. Others do not like the design and in the East where paper money is the favorite, there are persons who will not carry a silver dollar at any price.

As for us we remain non-committal. There is no need for the confession that we have not seen one of the peace dollars nor for the admission that a stick, steady or tottering, is beyond our ambitions. We like any kind of a dollar and will undertake to scrap any peace coin that offends its owner.

NOTES and COMMENT

The high school boy who shot a woman whose wife had intrigued his immature affections has already gained much sympathy. His teachers and classmates are moving to ameliorate the serious fix that he finds himself in. It has already been denied that he killed because of infatuation for the victim's wife, but for the reason that he was "insulted." It is not necessary to animalize him, but it is interesting to note the popular tendency.

According to the Seattle Times: "The old adage has it that 'Trade follows the flag.' In the case of Alaska, it must be changed to read, 'Education follows the flag,' for within the shadow of the Arctic Circle has been established the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines."

It is some satisfaction to learn that the army successfully withstood two bandits who attempted to raid a poker game at the Presidio. A military force was not called out, an unarmored sergeant working the miracle. The hardihood of the modern bandit is exemplified in this foray upon an army post, however, and there is no telling how near it would have come to success but for the fluke action of the unarmed sergeant.

The Herald tells of proposed reforms in the marriage laws of New York. "Judge Alfred J. Talley in General Sessions has proposed a reform in our betrothal and marriage customs under which publication shall be made in the newspapers of all marriage licenses issued, and there shall be a delay of at least a month between the issuance of the license and the marriage. That this would decrease the number of divorces and the destruction of the family units is probable."

Vice-President Coolidge says that jazz dancing is soon to pass. It was not understood that the Vice-President was an authority in such matters—though it is remembered that he led a disturbing element in Boston a merry dance while he was the Governor of Massachusetts; but he has given such evidence of knowing what he is talking about that what he says in this instance will carry weight.

The Brooklyn Eagle ascribes a reason: "Unanimously the Igorrotes, the headhunters of Luzon, prefer an American as provincial governor to a Filipino. Their judgment as to heads is based on long and critical experience."

First and last and all the time.
Girls want dolls and cats for toys,
Girls don't ever dare to climb.
Girls are silly. I don't know
Why they ever have to be—
Did you ever see one throw?
Girls don't make a hit with me.

Pa says girls are mighty sweet,
An' some day I'll find it out.
But they're all dressed up so neat
There's no fun when they're about.
I can't stand 'em 'round at all,
What they're good for, I don't see—
Ever watch one catch a ball?
Girls don't make a hit with me.

Boys are better right along;
They don't mind a little mud,
They've got muscles big and strong,
They don't faint at sight of blood;
Girls can't use a baseball bat,
Girls don't dare to climb a tree—
Ever see one skin the cat?
Girls don't make a hit with me.

He was balancing a cloth draped over his head from which protruded the front paws and head of a large turtle he had just caught in the river. "Let's have some fun with the old darkey," said the ventriloquist. So he threw his voice into the basket: "What are you going to do with me?" The old darkey stopped and rolled his eyes toward the basket and then moved on.

Again the question was asked supposedly by the turtle: "What are you going to do with me?" The old man stopped and asked: "Did you speak to me?" The voice replied: "Yes; I said, what are you going to do with me?" The negro, a picture of fright, replied: "To gwine ter drop you right heah!" And he dropped the basket and turtle and fled.—Judge.

About YOUR HEALTH

Do You Know What
A Cold May "Run On To?"
By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
Commissioner of Health,
New York City.

It isn't to frighten you that I write this article. It is to point out what a mistake you make to neglect a cold. If I can impress you with the importance of careful treatment of this thing, so simple in the beginning, I shall be reducing disease, suffering and sorrow.

If these miserable colds would confine themselves to the nose they wouldn't amount to much. But that's the trouble with them—they just won't "stay put." They will wander off into the recesses of the nasal sinuses, they will creep up into the ears, they will dive down into the lungs.

No one has tuberculosis until he has passed what the doctors call the "pre-tubercular stage." Nature is good to us. She rarely strikes a mortal blow until she has given us due and timely warning.

Tuberculosis is preceded by a run-down condition. Almost invariably there is a history of a neglected cold or of repeated colds. The soil is prepared, and then—the dread germs of tuberculosis take root.

So it is with some diseases of the ears. The same kind of inflammation produced in the nose by a cold creeps along the Eustachian tube and attacks the mucous membrane of the middle ear. There is such swelling of the lining of the tube as to cut off drainage. Then the secretions dam up in the ear, pressing on the delicate tissues and causing great pain. Finally, the accumulation is so great that the fluid breaks through the drum of the ear, resulting in a "running ear."

The next thing is the arrival of a pus-producing germ. It finds its way through the middle ear into the mastoid cells. The victim goes to the hospital for a mastoid operation.

The bones of your face are hollow. Under your cheeks, at the base of your nose, and around your eyes are large cavities or numerous small cells like honeycombs. These are called the "sinus sinuses." Between some of these and the brain cavity is a layer of bone like paper in its thinness.

A neglected cold, in its stage of "ripeness" may invade these cavities, causing "sinusitis." The particular cavity beneath your cheek is called the antrum, and this may fill up with pus. In the late stages of a cold, if your teeth begin to ache you may suspect involvement of this cavity. If you have a violent pain over one eye, coming on every morning and growing worse till night, you are probably in for sinus trouble.

A cold may also cause your eyes to become inflamed.

You see, all the organs of your head are in danger if you neglect a cold. This fact should warn you that a common cold deserves your immediate and serious attention. "A stitch in time saves nine." Early treatment of an infection of this sort will spare you days of suffering and agony.

Tomorrow I shall tell you what to do if you think you have taken a cold. If you follow this advice you will be spared a lot of misery.

DENBY'S EMPTY SHELLS MENACE TO NAVIGATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Another delicate situation has been cleared away, and Secretary of the Navy Denby will, in consequence, be able to hunt as often as he desires in Virginia.

Recently Denby was reported as having engaged in a game hunt in Virginia without having a state license, and M. D. Hart, secretary of the Virginia department of game and inland fisheries, wrote him, asking an explanation. In the ensuing exchange of notes the navy secretary showed that he had had the required certificate.

In discussing the incident Denby was reticent in telling the number of shells he used in bringing down each bird, but declared it was not over an average of 58. He only stopped shooting, he said, when he began to fear he was filling up the near-by river with lead and forming an obstruction to navigation.

Some of the "letters that never came" turn up in mailbags sent to the repair shops.

WRITING PLAY TO FIT SINGLE STAR CONDEMNED

Stick To Your Story For Best Results, Advice of Author Condon.

By FRANK CONDON, Famous Scenario Writer.

Many have said, "When writing a photoplay, write it to fit a certain star or screen performer."

My experience in photoplay writing, however, has taught me that I can secure better results by not attempting to write for any certain personality but to write for the sake of the story alone.

The average fiction story is purely a product of the imagination. The author creates his characters, his situations, his plot, and as he progresses with his story, the characters become very real to him as he moves them about as in a game of chess. The immortal Dickens is said to have declared, upon finishing his notable story, "David Copperfield," that the characters in that story had become so real, so human, so much a part of his life, that it was with a feeling of great sadness, like that which would be occasioned by the sudden parting of many dear friends, that he finally finished his story and ended with a stroke of his pen their fanciful existence.

When the writer begins his story, however, with a certain real personality in mind, gives him the principal role and keeps him constantly in mind all during the writing of the story, he surrounds himself with limitations; he sets a boundary line to genius, which he must not overstep; he can not have free rein, and the result is that his story or photoplay gradually becomes more the mechanical instead of the inspirational. He will suppress a certain human note or situation because he may feel that the personality of his star-heroin will not dovetail with that situation.

Therefore, my policy has come to be this: Forget that a star or actor ever existed. Get your idea, create your characters and allow them to do the most natural things that such characters would do under the situations involved.

I would much rather write five stories that are good screen vehicles with a minimum of my imagination,

Chaplin Discovers Strange Talent in Unknown Singer at Paris Le Rat Mort

(This is the thirty-sixth installment of Charlie Chaplin's own story of his European tour. The preceding installment concluded with his description of his visit to Germany.)

The first night in Paris after our return from Germany we dined at Piccadilly's, then walked up to the arches of the old gates of Paris. Our intention was to visit the Louvre and see the statue of Venus de Milo, but it only got as far as intention.

We drifted into the Montmartre district and stopped in Le Rat Mort, one of its most famous restaurants. As it is very early in the evening, there are very few people about, one reason why I picked out this place, which later in the night becomes the center of hectic revelry.

SEES A STRIKING BEAUTY. Passing our table is a striking-looking girl with bobbed blonde hair, shadowing beautiful, delicate features of pale coloring and soft, strange eyes of a violet blue. Her passing is momentary, but she is the most striking-looking girl I have seen in Europe.

Although there are but few people here, I am soon recognized. The French are so demonstrative. They wave, "Hello, Charlie!"

I am indifferent. I smile mechanically. I am tired. I shall go to bed early. I order champagne. The bobbed-head one is sitting at a table near us. She interests me. But she doesn't turn so that I can see her face. She is sitting facing her friend, a dark, Spanish-looking girl.

I wish she'd turn. She has a than to write one acceptable photoplay on the cut-to-measure idea.

CHAS. DITLEFF OLSEN—The TRIBUNE has no record of your registration. Will you send me at once?

LAWRENCE KENNEDY—Keep conversation out of your story, if possible. Action counts.

beautiful profile, but I would like to see her full face again. She looked so lovely when she passed me. I recall that ghost of a smile that hovered near her mouth, showing just a bit of beautiful, even, white teeth.

GIRLS TAKE PART IN DANCE. The orchestra is starting and dancers are swinging onto the floor. The two girls rise and join the dance. I will watch closely now and perhaps get another flash at her when she whirls by.

There is something refined and distinguished about the little girl. She is different. Doesn't belong here. I am watching her very closely, though she has never once looked my way. I like this touch of the unusual in Montmartre. Still she may be just clever.

She is passing me in the dance and I get a full view of her face. One of real beauty, with a sensitive mouth, smiling at her friend and giving a complete view of the beautiful teeth. Her face is most expressive. The music stops and they sit at their table.

I notice that there is nothing on their table. They are not drinking. This is strange, here. Nor are there sandwiches or coffee. I wonder who they are. That girl is somebody. I know it.

A SINGER AND AN ARTIST. She gets up as the orchestra plays a few strains of a plaintive Russian thing. She is singing the song. Fascinating! An artist! Why is she here? I must know her.

The song itself is plaintive, elemental, with the insinuating nuances that are vital to Russian music. The orchestra, with the violins and cellos predominant, is playing hauntingly, weaving a foreign exotic spell.

She has poise, grace, and is compelling attention even in this place. There comes a bit of melancholy in the song and she sings it as one possessed, giving it drama, pathos. Suddenly there is a change. The music leaps to wild abandon. She is with it. She tosses her head like a wild Hungarian gypsy and gives fire to every note. But almost as it begins the abandon is over. With wistful sweetness she is singing plaintively again. She is touching every human emotion in her song. At times she is tossing away care, then gently wooing, an elusive strain that is almost fairylike, that crescendos into tragedy, going into a crashing climax that diminishes into an ending, searching, yearning and wistfully sad.

Her personality is written into every note of the song. She is at once fine, courageous, pathetic and wild. She is touched to an applause that reflected the indifference of the place. In spots it was spontaneous and insistent. In others little attention was paid to her. She is wasted here.

But she cares not. In her face you can see that she gets her applause in the song itself. It was glorious, just to be singing with her soul, her voice, she smiles faintly, then sits down modestly.

I knew it. She is Russian. She has everything to suggest it. Full of temperament, talent and real emotion. I am sure she has here in Le Rat Mort. What a sensation she would be in America with a little advertising. This is just a thought. She is a first chance because I but all sorts of schemes present themselves to me.

I can see her in "The Folies" with superb dressing and doing just the song she had done then. I did not understand a word of it, but I felt every syllable. Art is universal and needs no language. She has every gift from gentleness to passion and a startling beauty. I am applauding too much, but she looks and smiles, so I am repaid.

They dance again and while they are gone I call the waiter and have him explain to the manager that I would like to be presented to her. The manager introduces her and I invite her to my table. She sits there with us, while her companion, the dark girl, does a solo dance.

A RUSSIAN EXILE. She talks charmingly and without restraint. She speaks three languages—Russian, French and English. Her father was a Russian general during the czar regime. I can see now where she gets her imperious carriage.

"Are you a bolshevik?" She flushes as I ask it, and her

VICTIMS IDENTIFY SUSPECT AS HEAD OF KIDNAP GANG

Accused Man Says He Had No Hand in Beating of S. F. Girls.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Close on the heels of the promise of Police Chief Dan O'Brien that the four men who kidnaped, beat, gagged and cruelly beat Irene and Winifred Larkin Tuesday night in a lonely spot on the San Bruno road would be captured, Vincent Fardella, identified by the girls as the leader of the gang, is held by the police today. His bond was fixed at $20,000.

Fardella was arrested yesterday on the direction of Police Captain John O'Shea, head of the Mission street district, and has been charged with assault with intent to murder, from Larkin's, a few hours after his arrest, identified the prisoner. A few minutes later her sister also identified the man. The police lined up Fardella with four other suspects brought in and each of the girls picked him out.

"He was the leader," each of the girls said. "He is the man who drove the automobile."

In the face of the girls' accusations the prisoner maintained his innocence. He is 29 years old and lives at 52 Manchester street.

The kidnapping and beating of the two girls, who testified at the trial of Antonio Navarro, convicted of bringing about the downfall of a girl, police believe, was engineered by Navarro's friends for vengeance. Fardella says he does not know Navarro or the girls and that he did not attack them.

Superior Judge Michael Roche yesterday issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Navarro, now under a sentence to San Quentin, but released last Saturday under bonds of $10,000 pending an appeal. He was arrested today; his bonds cancelled and he was sent to the county jail.

Van Fleet was treated at the Harbor Emergency hospital.

NEPHEW SEEKS $120,000 LEFT BY S. F. BEGGAR

dropped dead in New York city in will of the late Peter Vidovich, a beggar of San Francisco, leaving his entire estate of $120,000 to relatives in San Francisco. The object of the contest, by Martin Vidovich of Carson City, Nev., nephew of the dead man, in the court of Superior Judge Frank H. Duane the contestant declared his uncle mental, insane, using as examples the queer habits and habits of the man. He claimed his uncle collected old bottles, lived on butter, milk and wore a gray suit trimmed with blue serge.

Harbor Board Opens Bids for Warehouse

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Bids for the new China Basin warehouse were opened yesterday by the state board of harbor commissioners. The building will form the first unit in the new San Francisco terminal planned for the future development of this port by the harbor board.

The Harbo-Tidbits submitted the lowest bid, but no decision will be reached until after the recess which will be held next Thursday.

The new warehouse will be the largest of its kind in the world, and its location is so arranged on the China Basin that deep water craft can discharge or receive cargo directly at the building.

California Goods Urged on Wives

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—That it would be necessary to reduce the minimum wage for working women if California housewives would ask the dealers for California made goods and pay one cent more for them. Instead of purchasing goods manufactured in the east for one cent less, was the statement made by C. W. Finch, field secretary of the Manufacturers' association, in an address before the San Francisco Center at the meeting yesterday at the St. Francis hotel.

Finch says that although commodities have taken a decided fall recently and although California pays the highest minimum wage of any state, many industrial institutions will shut down if a reduction is not made.

ROUGH AND READY ISLE TO PROVIDE VETERANS' FARMS

One Hundred and Fifty Former Service Men to Get Tracts Near Stockton.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—One hundred and fifty former service men will be supplied by the United States War Veterans' Bureau of the Twelfth district with the next 30 days for rehabilitation as farmers on the Rough and Ready island, near Stockton, according to Major Louis T. Grant, manager of the bureau.

The men to be placed on these tracts will be chosen on the basis of their military record and experience, because upon the success of the Stockton project depends the adoption of its basic principles by the central bureau at Washington. The project is to be made a test of an experiment, the success of which will mean the adoption of a similar plan of tracts in the 14 districts of the United States.

Grant said that the land has been secured by the government and horses and tools will be furnished to the men. They will be placed on the island after leaving the city and will be supervised by the bureau. The project is to be made a test of an experiment, the success of which will mean the adoption of a similar plan of tracts in the 14 districts of the United States.

The executives and department heads of the War Veterans' Bureau of the Twelfth district, who are today completing a four-day session, discussed the project and the plan of the project.

At the meeting today, which closed the session, it was planned to discuss with all welfare organizations as soon as possible and to handle the problems of the disabled former service men through the board itself.

BRITISH LIBERATE IRISH PRISONERS; FREE STATE WORK

Many Held As Political Offenders Are Freed Under Amnesty.

LONDON, Jan. 13 (By the Associated Press).—The Irish political prisoners in the London jails—Brixton, Pentonville and Wormwood Scrubs—were released this morning under the amnesty proclamation issued by King George yesterday. Instructions were sent to the provincial jails for similar releases.

The Daily Mail's Dublin correspondent says that the Eirkeine Children party has sent urgent cablegrams to the United States appealing for funds to enable them to begin the election campaign in opposition to the new Free State government.

Districts in Ireland which benefited financially from the presence of British troops are expressing something like consternation at their withdrawal, according to the Morning Post's Dublin correspondent. The inhabitants of the military centers have sent letters to Dublin, and even to the British government asking retention of the troops, whose expenditure of their entire pay in Ireland meant important trade and employment of a number of the natives.

BRENN DEPORTED.

The Dublin correspondent of the Morning Post telegraphs the following from the United States of Daniel Breen, who appears to have been hanging around the Dail Eireann with a band of thugs, threatening to enter and shoot up the entire assembly if it ratified the treaty suggested that Michael Collins and Richard Mulcahy are alive to the necessities of the case.

There has been no previous information that Daniel Breen was to be deported from Ireland. A London despatch in October, 1930, identified Breen as commander of the Third Tipperary Brigade of the Irish Republican army. The British authorities in Ireland were said to have offered a reward of 1000 for his capture in connection with the murder of a Major Smythe, and he was also accused of killing two constables and perpetrating a series of other outrages.

PRISONERS FREED.

DUBLIN, Jan. 13 (By the Associated Press).—Materialization of the amnesty of political prisoners in Ireland has been the subject of much discussion here than any other development in the peace activities.

Dublin's citizens indulged in lively demonstrations last night, a large crowd outside Mount Joy prison welcoming the successive batches of liberated prisoners with loud cheers. Similar scenes were enacted in Cork and Limerick, where others were released.

BELFAST, Jan. 13.—There was further shooting in the streets of Belfast last night. One man was critically wounded.

BELFAST, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press).—The Ulster government, in its unwillingness to take responsibility for the release of the Sinn Fein prisoners who might come under the amnesty proclamation affecting political offenders. They will, it is said, be transferred tonight to the southern Ireland, leaving them to the British government to liberate them if it desires.

The strictest secrecy is being observed with regard to the prisoners for fear of rioting.

Professor Discusses Food Price Advances

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—Food combinations and the resultant higher prices are merely the results of an advanced civilization, according to Dr. J. H. Morgan, professor of household economics at the University of California and state chairman of food supply and demand of the California League for Women.

Yesterday before the Berkeley center of the State League in Unity Hall, Dr. Morgan said: "We have in this age superior education, we are getting the results of that education in superior organizations for which the people more or less are going to pay. It is unfortunate that we cannot always foresee the results of what we think are plans for the general good."

TEACHERS TO VISIT DUCKS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—The Grade Teachers' association under the leadership of the bird section will visit Lake Merritt, Oakland tomorrow to make a study of the wild ducks which winter there. The section chairman will endeavor to identify some 15 species among the thousands of wild fowl on the lake. The teachers will leave San Francisco in a body on the 3:40 a. m. Key Route boat.

Did not some little member of the family ask for "more milk" today?

Foreman Injured By Fall From Wharf

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—J. P. Johanson, a gang foreman at the Alaska Packers' Association docks, fell from the wharf yesterday and received a bad wrench of the back. He is now under observation at the Alameda Sanatorium. Johanson fell thirty feet and struck floating spars. His injuries may be serious. Johanson lives at 859 Thirty-fourth avenue, Oakland.

NO DRINKS FOR NEXT YEAR, IS MAN'S SENTENCE

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—James S. Dye, 32-year-old shoemaker of 2915 College avenue, must lay off the "hooch" for one year or go to jail.

Judge Robert Edgar issued this edict this morning when Dye appeared for sentence on a battery complaint sworn to by his wife, Mildred Dye. Mrs. Dye declared that Dye when sober was a model husband, but that she was sure he knew every bootlegger in Alameda county.

"Have a heart, your honor," remonstrated Dye when Judge Edgar informed him that he would suspend a sentence of two months in the county jail provided he didn't take a drink for a year. "I'll promise not to get drunk for the next year, but, Judge, I simply must have a drink now and then. It's cruel to give such an order."

T. B. Dye, cattleman of Arizona, who was summoned by Mrs. Dye, testified that he was sure his brother could not drink and remain sober.

"That settles it," said the Judge. "Either you lay off the booze or you'll go to jail for two months."

Chinese Language Classes Arranged

As a result of requests for instruction in the Chinese language recently, the University of California Extension Division announces that it has obtained the services of Nelson C. Tang, who will start new evening classes for teaching the Mandarin language, beginning next Friday at the Pacific building. Tang is associate professor in Chinese at the University of California.

Women becoming economically independent is attributed as the cause of increasing divorces in St. Louis.

FILMS USED BY U. S. IN TRAINING FORMER SOLDIERS

Vocational Courses Mastered
in One-Fifth Time Needed;
No Old Way Courses.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Disabled world war soldiers, taking courses of education from the government can learn certain trades and industrial work through the visual educational films recently instituted by the government in one-fifth of the time they would require through lectures and the study system, according to results of experiments made here by the Society of Visual Education.

"There are various reasons for this condition," said Sumner Calvert, superintendent of the society here. "The chief factor in making this rapid education possible is the fact that through the pictures the pupil is enabled to gain what might be called practical experience as well as theory for the subject under study is gone through with in far more elaborate detail than text books supply and the eye can gather and record from the mind by actual vision of the subject far faster than the mind can absorb and record it through study."

SECONDARY FEATURE.
"Of course, the study is the secondary feature of the course that is the finishing touch to the pupil, but he usually knows what he is reading about and can avoid concentrated effort, if he has taken the visual system first."

The government has made educational films dealing with mechanical arts, the machine shop, dairy and light farm work, civil engineering, taxes are for in relation to the city and government, health, culture, health and hygiene and geography and history.

The government, however, is particularly in case a film is being made with the subject of dairying, a dairy with the very latest equipment is picked out. The picture machine and operator is transported to this dairy from a leading university, who is considered to have knowledge that is the very last word on the subject of cows, milk, butterfat and dairying in general. Also a practical dairyman who stands at the very top of his profession is in the party. Then there is the general film manager. These three decide upon the manner in which the picture is to be made to bring forth the best results from the student's viewpoint.

DAIRYING DETAILS.
Every detail of dairying is shown with close-ups on all features that require close study when in text books. Time in exposure is considered for each showing of the film, a professor and a practical dairymen instruct the pupils in the finer details. Health and hygiene are included in all pictures.

The same system of taking the picture is applied to every film. In the machine shop pictures, for example, an expert machinist and a professor in mechanical engineering both oversee the picture filmed and watch not only for detail that the student needs but for the details that the students should be cautioned to avoid.

CITY WILL TEACH EVERY ILLITERATE

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 12.—Not content with the rating recently given it by the United States Census Bureau as the most "intelligent" city in the nation, Spokane now proposes to seek out the 687 illiterates found by the census enumerators within its borders and better its record.

The matter has been brought before the education committee of the chamber of commerce which has promised to give the proposal its early attention. Meanwhile the public night schools, which have been in operation here for more than ten years, are planning to enlarge their operations to reach as many of the foreign-born of the city as possible.

With this end in view, each of the 200 foreign born students in the night classes, most of them men and women, are being urged to induce their friends to enroll for work next term, and most of them have promised to bring at least one additional student.

During the last ten years, since accurate records of night school attendance have been kept, a total of 19,153 persons have been enrolled in the night classes. Allowing that each of these had been enrolled on an average during the last ten years, Arnold, supervisor of public evening schools, estimates that one in every ten persons in the city's population of approximately 100,000 has attended night school during the decade.

Of this total, he said, 3741 foreign born have been enrolled during the

CONSTANCY IS REWARDED AFTER 25 YEARS' WAIT

After waiting more than twenty-five years for his former sweetheart who, following a quarrel, had jilted him and married his partner, William Lee's constancy was rewarded today when he wedded Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Lynott, his partner's widow. Lynott died more than a year ago.

Lee, hearing of his sweetheart's marriage, had followed the sea for several years in an endeavor to forget.

Later he retired and returned to Oakland. After the death of Lynott the two met again, and their marriage today was the result.

RUMANIA PENS RUSSIAN NOTES

MOSCOW, Jan. 12.—(By Associated Press.)—The business conditions of both Russia and Rumania continue to be affected by the interrupted exchange of diplomatic notes between the two countries during a period of two years over the possession of Bessarabia, now occupied by the Rumanian army with civil officials co-operating in the occupation.

Business men near Russian frontiers have been frightened by these notes, thinking they would lead to war at any time. American business men and bankers in Constantinople have refused loans or participation in investments involving either Rumania or the Ukraine because of these notes.

Yet, to any one who has observed the tenor of these notes and read between the lines, they have never appeared serious. Rumanians and Russian politicians have understood each other perfectly all the while and probably laughed in their sleeves while penning vitriolic notes which, had any other countries been involved, would have either terminated in war or a reasonable adjustment.

Bessarabia, in pre-war days, was a Russian province, best known in the United States as the seat of frequent Jewish massacres, especially at Kishinev. In the general war, the Rumanians, having been overrun by Germans and Bulgars, fled to Bessarabia. The national treasure and crown jewels, together with the jewels of the ordinary citizens of the city were "hauled" upon the royal train, escorted from General Mackensen and taken to Russia, and later to Moscow. A little later Russia went Bolshevik, and this treasure was absorbed by the new government.

What has for several years proved an apparent misfortune to Rumania may now be a blessing in disguise. It may lead Soviet Russia, unable to pay back this money, to surrender Bessarabia. During all the long years between the two foreign offices, there has been a sarcastic tendency on the part of the Rumanians to ask: "When do you intend to return that money you stole?"

George Chitchevin, the Russian foreign minister, has not infrequently asked, "When will Rumania's squatter army skedaddle?" The impression prevails here that Russia with her new economic policy, will not only refrain from war but conclude to Rumania remain in occupation for several years at least. Then, when the horizon is clear and business good, a Russian army may march in and take Bessarabia.

last six years. Records as to foreign or native births were not kept prior to that time.

Attention to foreign born citizens to night school classes is obtained by means of means. Enrollment dates and courses offered are brought before them through announcements in the newspapers, street car advertisements, employers of labor, the public day schools and the pupils of foreign born people.

As a means of making available night school advantages to a number of men of Greek birth employed in shoe-shining establishments, Supervisor Hoid last fall organized an evening class in elementary English and citizenship in the club room of the local Greek society. This class is held from 9 to 10:30 p. m. after the close of the regular evening classes, and is attended by about thirty men and boys who are unable to leave their jobs early enough to attend the classes at the school buildings.

Besides the English and citizenship courses, a wide array of subjects, including science, industrial courses, athletics and a number of others, is offered.

Rebuilding of Rheims In Five Years Likely

RHEIMS, France, Jan. 12.—The city of Rheims may be rebuilt within five years. This is the opinion of Marquis Melchior de Polignac, president of the Co-operative Society for the Reconstruction of Rheims. At the most, he says, the work will not require more than six or seven years. The amount of work remaining to be done is estimated by the Marquis to cost 1,000,000,000 francs, of which 100,000,000 is for reparations and 900,000,000 for reconstruction. He says that the society will have 200,000,000 francs placed at its disposal each year for the next five years. This is by arrangement of credits with the Department of Public Works.

Presbyterians Plan San Leandro Church

SAN LEANDRO, Jan. 12.—In line with the proposed building program of the First Presbyterian church of San Leandro, Dr. R. S. Donaldson of the San Francisco Presbytery will confer with the local building committee on Saturday of this week, according to Rev. Maurice Drew, pastor of the San Leandro church, today. The purchase of lots in the Broadmoor district of San Leandro and the erection of a modern and completely equipped church edifice is contemplated by the San Leandro body, says Rev. Drew. A report of the conference between Dr. Donaldson and the building committee will be given at the Sunday morning service of January 15.

Thousands believed us, tried us, and now our stores are busy "every day." So busy, in fact, that it is most difficult for us to serve all patrons as we would like, most afternoons. Hundreds of our patrons have responded to our appeal for them to come during the morning on Saturdays. It helps us and our patrons greatly. # MY FAVORITE STORIES

by IRVIN S. COBB
An Earnest Cry for Help.

Our town—I mean the one where I was born—formerly abounded in characters—"types" they'd call them in a larger place. One of our local institutions twenty years ago was a black driver named Abe, but called Old Abe for short. Abe was popular with both races, good natured, loud mouthed and friendly. He had one social shortcoming, though. About once in so often he would slip out on a dark night and acquire something of value without the formality of speaking to the owner about it. For awhile he escaped a penitentiary sentence.

But eventually he was caught with what the grand jury and the prosecuting attorney regarded as the goods, the said goods consisting of a stray calf. He was lodged in the Blue Eagle jail to await trial. His cell was in the upper tier. On the Sunday afternoon following his incarceration his wife, accompanied by five or six of Abe's pickaninnies, came to pay him a visit. It was the first time she had seen him since his arrest.

On her way out she was halted by the deputy jailer, whose name was Grady.

"Dora," he said, "have you hired a lawyer for Abe yet?"

"Naw, suh," she said, "often Abe was guilty, right away I'd git him a lawyer. But he p'intedly tells me he ain't de leas' bit guilty. So, of co'se, dat hein' de case, he ain't needin' no lawyer to git him clear."

From the floor above, down the iron stairwell, came floating the voice of Abe:

"Mr. Grady, oh, Mr. Grady!—you tell 'at fool nigger 'oman down thar to git a lawyer—an' git a dam good one, too."

MOVIE OF BARGAIN HUNTER AT REMNANT COUNTER.

Gets in close to counter by vigorous use of knees and elbows.

The others do it, why not she?

Sees remnant she likes.

Grabs it off counter.

Throws it over arm, hugging it tightly to her side.

Glares at other woman who wants to look at it.

Goes down the aisle and snatches remnant from under another woman's nose.

Hangs it over her arm and hugs it to her side.

Starts on a grand tour of counter, picking up remnants as she goes, draping them over her arm and hugging them close to her side.

She is preceded and followed by other women doing the same thing.

Each of the women are complaining bitterly of the others.

Finally gets around to where she started.

By this time practically all the remnants are being carried around. Each woman becomes dissatisfied with her remnants about the same time.

Throw them down on the counter and start all over again.

Shopper suddenly sees remnant she knows she wants.

Grabs for it.

Other shopper has seen it at the same time.

A tug-of-war ensues.

(Sub-title):
I SAW IT FIRST,
YOU DID NOT!
I DID, TOO!
YOU DID NOT!
(Note to operator: Cut one hundred feet.)

First woman finally gets possession of remnant. Closer scrutiny convinces her that she doesn't want it, after all. Throws it down on the counter and hurries away.

NEW OAKS WILL REPORT AT TRAINING CAMP FEBRUARY 15TH

MIDDLEWEIGHT WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP WILL BE DECIDED IN OAKLAND NEXT MONTH

SCOUT JACK DOYLE IN TOWN TO CHAT WITH OAKLAND CLUB OWNERS

Advance Squad of Oaks Will Be in Training Camp at Myrtle Dale As Early As Feb. 15.

Jack Doyle, the demon scout of the Chicago Cubs, was in town yesterday and spent a couple of hours at the Oakland ball club headquarters with George Del Howard, vice-president, and Herbie McFarlin, secretary of the Oaks. Jack and Del, being old-time major leaguers, spent most of their time together talking of old days in the big tent, so nothing in the way of a deal between the Oaks and Cubs was done, except that Del and Jack will have a meeting today with J. Cal Ewing, president of the Oaks. Just what will be done when the two chieftains of the Oaks and the Cub representative get together is a question. Some think that Jack wants to talk about taking Claude Cooper to the Cubs and others that some players in part payment for Hack Miller will be offered. Whatever it is, it should be news of interest to the fans, for Cal Ewing, Del Howard and scouts like Doyle do not sit down to such meetings unless they mean to do real business.

Besides being here to talk with the owners of the Oakland baseball club, Doyle is going to look over the big field of local bush talent. He has been tipped off to several youngsters in the bushes, and as he is to spend several weeks in this section, he might get the names of a couple of them affixed to Chicago Cub contracts.

Doyle Gives Fine Boost To Tribune League Graduate.
Walter (Senap) Christensen, the lad who graduated from The Oakland Tribune Midwinter League, going to Calvary and then to the New York Yankees, and who will spend next season with St. Paul in the American Association, is one of the greatest outfielders in the country. In the opinion of Doyle, Doyle would like to see the young fellow with the Cubs, for he claims that he has a style about him that is different from other fellows of his age just breaking into professional ball, and that it is of the kind that would make a big hit no matter what company he played in. He is a player of the Willie Center type, and Jack Doyle, who has been another year or two when he will be up there," chirped Doyle to Don Moskiman yesterday. Doyle is there with the best of them when it comes to picking out a ballplayer, whether he be on the street or the diamond. Jack Doyle, Christensen's talk and action even in his street clothes convinces him that he can play the game. What made the big hit with Doyle when "Senap" asked him a few pointers on the game, explaining that he knew there was a lot more he could be taught about the game. Doyle was so interested in the conversation which "Senap" carried on with him that he sat for more than a couple of hours listening, and says he would willingly do it again. Christensen's style of coaching also made a big hit with Doyle.

New Oaks to Report At Myrtle Dale February 15.
Del Howard will leave Oakland next Thursday morning for Myrtle Dale in Napa county where he will spend a couple of days seeing that everything will be in readiness for the Oaks to do their training at that place next spring. Del is very much enthused over the coming baseball season, and although it looks like a couple of spots on the local club will need strengthening, the big fellow says there is nothing to worry about. "Lots of things can be done between now and the opening of the season, and we will do plenty of them," said Del.

Cal Ewing and Howard had a lengthy talk yesterday and when all was said and done Howard announced that the training season for some of the Oaks will start as early as February 15. Any of the fellows who were not in the local club, such as pitchers Ed Miller and Marioello will report at that date. It is at Cal Ewing's suggestion that such a move is to be taken. Cal figures that it will take some time for such fellows as Eller to get acclimated out here. Besides the huge new club house and baseball diamond at Myrtle Dale there will be new bath-houses where all the mineral baths can be taken. Del was informed a few days ago by L. Roy Levela, proprietor at Myrtle Dale, that more than a thousand loads of new soil have been worked into the diamond and that it will be in readiness for the Oaks early next month. Herb Brennon and "Don" Brown are also slated to be among the early reporters at Myrtle Dale. It will be the earliest call for spring training ever made by the Oakland ball club.

W. & J. Home; Now For the Big Eats
WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 13.—The Washington & Jefferson football squad returned home today from the Pacific Coast. A crowd at the station gave Coach Neale and his men a large sized demonstration. The athletes who held the California Bears to a scoreless tie, will be feted at banquets tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, and expect to resume classes Monday.

Favor New National Amateur Ath. Body
CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 13.—Formation of a national federation of amateur athletic organizations will be advocated here next week when the National Baseball Federation meets in annual convention, officials of the baseball league declared today. Preliminary steps for the national body have been started by Colonel Walter Johnson, Washington, chief of athletics in the army, who is expected here for the meeting as special representative of Secretary of War Weeks. It was stated.

Hjelte, Playing For O.A.C., Injures Foot
CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 13.—Marshall G. "Mush" Hjelte, former Oakland boy at present attending the Oregon Agricultural College, where he is playing center on the basketball team, broke a bone in his foot last week in practice. Hjelte has been a big star with the Aggies, playing in both games against Whitman College. Thus far Hjelte has scored 35 points while opposing teams have been able to loop but 39 against the Aggies.

Miguel Gonzales Is Sent To St. Paul
ST. PAUL, Jan. 13.—Miguel Gonzales, catcher for the past three years with the New York Nationals, has been acquired by the St. Paul club of the American Association. Manager Mike Kelly announced yesterday.

McAuliffe Puts Fred Farmer to Sleep In Fourth Round

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 13.—Jack McAuliffe, Detroit heavyweight, won a technical knockout over Frank Farmer, veteran Tacoma, when Farmer's seconds threw in the towel in the fourth round of a scheduled six-round bout here last night after the first man had been floored six times. Farmer was downed twice in the second round with straight rights and lefts, twice in the third and again twice in the fourth. Mike Balarini, Manila bantam, won a decision over Eddie Moore, Seattle, in a six-round semi-windup. Jimmy Rivers of Tacoma outclassed Mickey Dempsey of Portland in a four-round go. They are lightweights. Al Clark of Milwaukee, won a decision over Sandy Carbone, Tacoma welter. A record crowd saw the bill, which was the first to be held in the new auditorium here.

Sequoia members will be glad to hear that the drastic action of closing up several of the holes will not be necessary. A strong drying wind has been instrumental in saving the situation. The green keepers have also been concentrating their efforts to clear away accumulations of leaves. The green keepers have been now on improvement in the condition of the fairways and greens will be steadily maintained. If players should find the cups placed in awkward corners they must understand this is done to preserve the low-lying portions of the putting greens where excessive moisture is generally to be found.

Tomorrow a cocktail cup tournament is to be held at Sequoia in which players compete in match play against par. Holes up handicap will prevail. Players receiving one-half of their regular medal allowance. This is a generous allowance, but one that has worked very satisfactorily in previous competitions. The players will be divided into three flights with a cup for each winner. Players with handicaps of 12 strokes or less will comprise the first flight. Those with 13 to 18 strokes will make up flight No. 2. Players with 19 and over will have a battle all on their own for cocktail cup No. 3. In match play against par medal play rules prevail. Styemes are not played and penalties for striking flag pin from inside the 10-yard radius will cost two strokes and one stroke if you hit your opponent's ball on the putting green. Knights of Pythias Defeat Emporium
The Knights of Pythias and Emporium teams staged a fine game at Frutiger's Depot grounds, the Knights winning 8 to 2. Pickets twined a fine game and was given fine support by Captain Frank Viers and his boys. Thomas and Pink for the Knights hit the ball all over the lot. Pink was robbed of another hit when E. Jerome made a one-handed catch of his drive. It looked good for a homer. Oliver pitched fair ball for the Emporium but was given poor support. Score:

Boxer Exonerated for Death of Opponent
WILKESBARE, Pa., Jan. 13.—Joe Rittchie, a local amateur boxer, was exonerated by a coroner's jury from all blame for the death of George Bliss, who died as a result of blows received in a bout with Rittchie last week. The jury, two of whose members were women, recommended strict regulation of both professional and amateur bouts and that the city physician as well as the club physician examine all boxers before they enter the ring.

MEX WINS FIGHT
COLORADO SPRING, Colo., Jan. 13.—Johnny "Kid" Mex, of Pueblo, was given a decision over Charley McCarthy of St. Paul when the latter broke his hand in the eighth round and was forced to quit. The men are lightweights.

Warner Still Discussed at Stanford Univ.

Pitt Coach to Pay Visit to the Farm Soon, But Not Likely to Accept Offer Now.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 13.—Stanford football supporters are enthusiastic over the coming visit of Glenn Warner, the famous gridiron mentor to the Stanford campus to go over the local athletic situation with the Board of Athletic Control and possibility that he will agree to sign up for the Stanford coaching job in 1934. The only regret that was expressed was that Warner would not be a repeatable sooner.

Athletic Director Walter Powell stated that Warner had been called in to diagnose the local football situation in the same way that a specialist is brought in to analyze the affairs of a business concern. He said that if Warner should be a great boost to the athletic muscle here. According to Powell there is no reason to believe that Warner will accept the position on Gene Van Coot, the present coach. If Warner is secured, the Stanford athletic director said that Van Coot had done as well as possible under the conditions which worked last season. Speculation is being heard here today how the Stanford coaching would be handled until 1934 if Warner is secured to start at that time. One suggestion was made that his contract here in the spring and personally direct the practice during 1932 and 1933 and leave a must help who has been trained under his system to carry out the work in the fall. If the Warner system is installed it was pointed out that it will be necessary to start using it with the freshman teams also in the fall. It is thought here that Warner will look with favor upon the opportunity to take up the football reins here. It has been known for some time that he desired to move to California and it is pointed out that this factor will likely enter strongly into his decision to come here.

Brickley Not to Coach Northwestern
CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Charles Brickley, famous Harvard football player who was today with no right the position of football coach at Northwestern University but was unable to sign on terms with the college heads and all negotiations have been dropped.

Minnesota Considers Bezdek and Luehring
MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 13.—Authorities of the University of Minnesota, seeking a director of athletics and football coach held conferences here yesterday with Hugo Bezdek, football coach, and athletic director, Penn State, and Fred Luehring, athletic director at the University of Nebraska. No definite arrangements were made with either man, it was said last night.

FARRELL MEETS RAMIES
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13.—Young Farrel, Los Angeles, and Spec Ramies of San Pedro, bantamweights, will box the main event at the American Legion here tonight.

Wrestlers Will Try Their Luck Next Wednesday

By BOB SHAND

Unless prohibited, the middleweight wrestling championship of the United States will be settled right here in Oakland. After several weeks of negotiations Khourain announced this morning that he had completed arrangements for the appearance of Ted Thye and Walker Miller here next month and that Mike Yokel, the other claimant of the title, would be here in a couple of weeks. Khourain is all smoked up over his plans and expects to firmly re-establish the grappling game locally. Thye is operating in Portland and Seattle, but he has about run out of opponents, and was glad to accept the local offer. Miller has been appearing in bouts in the southern part of the state, but has expressed a desire to clear up the middleweight title.

YOKEL HELD TITLE.
Yokel held the title, but retired because he was underframed, no longer being able to carry the crown, and they have been battling for it ever since, both claiming the honor. Recently Yokel was tried of farming and decided to toss his bones in the ring again. He is a number of eastern states, but also been advertising himself as the holder of the title.

Yokel came to Oakland direct from his ranch at Past-rson's Hole, Idaho. He engaged in a number of bouts here, winning them all, with the exception of the Santel contest, but Santel is a heavy-weight, and Mike lost nothing through the defeat. Yokel's idea in wrestling here for short change was to get into condition again and be in a position to defend his title against the Thyes and Millers and any other claimants for the championship that might happen to loom-up.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM.
The program Khourain has mapped out calls for Yokel to wrestle Thye, the winner to meet Miller and the loser to meet Al Karasick, the local champion. In the meantime Khourain is considering his cards on the Karasick-Pitt match, which will take place at the Shrine auditorium. Twelfth and Harrison streets next Wednesday night. Yokel's show scheduled at the civic auditorium on that evening Joe hopes will be a success. Yokel's fame may eventually become rapid grappling enthusiasts. The auto show will be on all next week at the Auditorium, which will keep the little four rounders idle.

Pitt, who is hailed as the champion of Honolulu, made a big hit last December when he wrestled Mike Yokel here. Pitt had a rough time defeating the man from Hawaii even if he had an advantage of several pounds. Karasick with also have a slight weight advantage over Pitt, but Al is not so experienced as his opponent and the contest looks like an even affair.

"TERRIBLE TURK" COMING.
Yousif Mahmoud, the "Terrible Turk" has written Khourain that he intends coming west soon and would like to appear before an Oakland crowd. Ad Santel has agreed to meet the Turk, and the match will likely take place early in March.

Buck Weaver Still Declares His Innocence

Applies to Judge Landis for Reinstatement; Decision Is Awaited.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—An echo of the 1919 world series scandal was heard today when it became known that George (Buck) Weaver, former Chicago White Sox third baseman, had personally appealed to Judge Kenneth M. Landis for reinstatement in organized baseball. Weaver is said to have declared to Judge Landis that he was approached by a White Sox player near the end of the 1919 season and asked if he would join in a plan to throw games to Cincinnati in the world's series that fall. It was explained to him that several other players had agreed deliberately to lose contests and make the series a "made to order" one for Cincinnati. Weaver was offered $10,000 as his share. Weaver said that although he needed money badly he never once thought of accepting the offer. He said he did not know definitely which team was involved in the plot, and therefore "decided to keep quiet and play my best."

The third baseman and seven others were tried and found guilty of conspiracy.

Bruin Gymnasts to Receive Circle "C"

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Jan. 13.—Circle "C" recognition now belongs to California's matmen and acrobats of the gymnasium club. The high-class of work exhibited by the club men was taken into consideration at the last meeting of the Circle "C" Society and a final decision was reached that the gymnasts were deserving of minor sport rating. Letters are to be given on the Stanford meet. In case of a victory over the Cardinal, the entire team will receive letters while otherwise only those men winning an event will receive the award.

Fremont Weight Men Lose to Lowell High

The Fremont High School 145-pound basketball team went down to defeat before the Lowell High weight team in San Francisco by a score of 25-27 in the first of the high school clashes between schools on opposite sides of the bay. The Fremont team work was superior to that of the transbay boys but when it came to looping the ball for points the Lowell men clearly outshone the Green and Gold forwards and won on account of the inability of the Fremont boys to connect after they had saved the way for many a score by perfect passing.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The Crowley shipyard at East Oakland began work this morning with a full force of ship carpenters for the first time since it has been established and is now working on large outside vessels and on big launches. The codling schooners Louise, Sequoia and Galilee, which had been idle at Richardson's bay, off Sausalito, for nearly two years, were towed to the Crowley shipyard for a general overhauling and will be put in shape for a cruise to Bering Sea this spring. The steamers Neaham and J. B. Stetson were also taken to the shipyard and will be overhauled and again placed in the coast trade between this port and northern lumber ports. The transport West Lark was placed on the Moore's dry dock for a general overhauling, and the steamers Jim Butler and Kaituma are also there, receiving a coat of new paint and minor repairs. From now on all of the Oakland drydocks will be busy, as the Alaska fishing fleet will begin to come on for cleaning and painting to be ready for loading their supplies for the summer's work in the north.

FREMONT HIGH
MAY TURN SHOPS
INTO CLASSROOMS

Special Meeting of the School Officials and Patrons Called to Relieve Crowding.

A special meeting of the board of education to consider the Fremont high school situation, was held today as the result of a hasty call this morning, arising from a demand that some solution be made of the Fremont problem immediately. Delegations of East Oakland citizens, especially from Leona and Alameda, attended the meeting.

The Fremont case arose when the educational heads discovered that the number of East Oakland schools eligible to enter Fremont is so disproportionate that Fremont is likely to be swamped with pupils, after grammar school classes are graduated.

In order to take the relieve strain on Fremont, the educators arranged a re-distributing of high schools and specified that only a very few of the furthest East Oakland schools could go to Fremont. The parents of students in other schools immediately were up in arms lest their children be compelled to cross the city to Oakland or Technical high schools.

The educators had suggested Alexander Hamilton Junior high school as a stop-gap for East Oakland students, but only a few were satisfied. At this afternoon's meeting it was proposed to turn the Fremont shops temporarily into classrooms, pending construction of regular classrooms later. The East Oakland citizens demand Fremont and they will get Fremont, it is admitted. There is said to be no other possible solution of the problem. The purchase of portables was suggested, but these buildings cost money and the board of education members assert that they cannot make the outlay.

GUN INVENTION
BADLY HURTS BOY

LIVERMORE, Jan. 13.—As the result of youthful invention in the way of firearms, John Silva, 16-year-old son of Mrs. and Mrs. John Silva, who live on the Beck road four miles north of town, lies in the Franklin hospital, San Francisco, in a paralyzed condition.

After the accident the parents had some difficulty in getting the boys to confess as to what had happened. Then they told of how they had contrived to make a gun by using a piece of pipe. Bullets and powder were placed in the pipe, and the charge was fired by striking with a hammer a rod inserted in the end.

The injured boy had insisted upon the younger brother firing the shot. This he did with the result that the bullet struck the older boy in the middle of the spine, causing paralysis of the legs.
